

forth. Then it turned into a narrow palm-lined avenue to the presidential palace.

From the iron gates of the Brazilian white house grounds two little girls, one quite black and one white, and faintly dressed, leaned out to watch together in perfect sociability. Mr. Hoover and the official party all were taken into the commodious presidential palace for the stay here.

Hoover to Make Three Speeches.

The first day was given over to getting acquainted and a private dinner, but Mr. Hoover is scheduled to speak tomorrow to the Supreme court and congress and at the state dinner in the evening.

No diplomatic problems confront the President-elect in Brazil, which is a big, friendly nation, much in need of capital to develop going industries. This republic is the nearest to the United States in political character.

The United States of Brazil consists of twenty states, one territory, and a federal district. It was modeled, in 1889, after our republic. Each state is powerful and independent in internal affairs from the federal government, probably more so than our states. Brazil's area is greater than that of the United States and it has a population of about 25,000,000. It has a national congress, which convened in special session to honor Mr. Hoover. The president is elected by the people directly, by an absolute majority of votes. The franchise is general.

Getting Many Immigrants.

The country is growing by great immigration, as is Argentina. The immigrants in all amount to more than 4,000,000. It has 20,000 miles of railroads and 23,000 miles of roads and highways.

What is going on is shown in an item in the Brazilian American, which tells of a five day auto trip of the Touring Club of Brazil to the state of Sao Paulo. The tourists were received along the way by good roads associations, and pronounced the 1,000 miles of road in good condition. They said they did not even have a flat tire on the way. Last year's reports showed 95,000 motor vehicles in Brazil.

Brazil has enormous water power, with 400 important sites. It is estimated that 60,000,000 horsepower is available. Of the 1,133 cities and towns in Brazil 595 are served with electric power and 465 have central power plants.

Agriculture Takes First Place.

Agriculture takes first place in Brazil, with corn, coffee, and rice at the top. Previously the development of rubber was the big industry. General depression has hampered the Amazon district in the last few years, but Henry Ford is counted on to give the rubber business a new and important boost. The mineral riches of the country cannot be estimated.

Trade with the United States grows more and more important. The Brazilian commercial office reports give the United States 15 per cent last year. In six months of this year the figure averaged 28 per cent. Nearly one-half of Brazil's exports go to the United States. Motors, gasoline, kerosene, and wheat flour are the chief items of importation from the United States. Last year Brazil bought $60,000,000 of coal from the United States.

Hoover Sends Regrets.

U. S. S. UTAR AT RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Dec. 21. (AP)—Messages were sent today by Ambassador Fletcher from the battleship Utah in behalf of Herbert Hoover to the American ambassadors in Mexico and Cuba and the American minister in Santo Domingo expressing the President-elect's regret at his inability to visit those countries on his goodwill trip.

Mr. Fletcher also sent a message to the state department at Washington requesting that Colombia, Venezuela and other countries which had invited Mr. Hoover to visit them be communicated with immediately in order to inform their governments of Mr. Hoover's regret that circumstances prevented his acceptance.

BRAZILIANS SEE HOOVER AS AID TO TOURIST TRAVEL

One effect of Herbert Hoover's good will tour through South America, according to the American Brazilian association, will be a large influx of tourists from the United States to Brazil during the early months of 1929.

In February, which is summer time in Brazil, Rio de Janeiro holds its Mardi Gras.

During the four days of Feb. 9 to 12, when the carnival is in full swing, the mayor of Rio will welcome all tourists from the United States and the Touring Club of Brazil will provide social entertainment.

Raymond Woods, burglar, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; Victor Smedley, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Pontiac reformatory; Judge Frank Comerford.

Charles Tyler, assault to rob, sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the penitentiary by Judge John J. Sullivan.

Met Funk, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; Benjamin Loving, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Pontiac reformatory; Elmer Heiser, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Frank Nagel, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge John J. McCarty.

Christ Parris, assault to murder, sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the penitentiary by Judge Marcus Karsch.

Joe Saltis went to jail last night. After commitment papers had been signed at 6 o'clock in the court of Municipal Judge George A. Curran, Capt. William Schoemaker and a squad of detectives escorted Joe to the Bridge well to begin his sixty day sentence for carrying concealed weapons. Saltis began serving his sentence 215 days after he became a fugitive, following the refusal of the United States Supreme court to review the gun totting conviction on which he was sentenced two years ago. He surrendered to U. S. marshals last Saturday.

During the afternoon Joe was taken before United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker, where two bonds totaling $25,000 were arranged for his release from federal custody. Charges of dry law violation, conspiracy and contempt of court are pending against him in the federal court. The hearing in Judge James K. Wilkerson's court was continued to 10 o'clock this morning.

Capt. Schoemaker and his men stood beside Saltis in the federal building while he affixed his signature to the bonds. As soon as Joe laid down the pen he was handcuffed and taken to the city hall, where Judge Curran and his staff were waiting overtime to dispose of the beer baron.

The process of Joe's transfer from the federal building to the Bridewell was somewhat hesitant, because he insisted upon a guarantee that his sixty day sentence begin immediately. "I don't want to be around in no police station," he protested. "I want to be sure that I'm going to begin my stretch now and get it over with."

The deadlock was broken when a deputy bailiff rushed in with the news that the captain had been making arrangements for him in the past. Intercession by Lieut. Thomas Burke prevented a battle in the squad car.

give that to others. I'll spend my Christmas in a cell. And all for talking back to a policeman. Well, the average policeman is pretty dumb. And it's been my job to educate them, especially those down in the yards."

Among Saltis' bondsmen were John and Margaret McBride, parents of Vincent and Frank McBride, 891 Anthony avenue. The others were: Joseph Trejbal, 2057 West 51st street; Robert and Margaret Marvis, 7145 Ellis avenue; Eamon P. Osmo, 1716 Byron street; Mary Dervinski, 1815 West Garfield boulevard; and Joseph Havelka, 2038 West 53d street.

Saltis and Capt. Schoemaker nearly came to blows on the way from the city hall to the Bridewell. The altercation resulted from Joe's assertion that the captain had been making arrangements for him in the past. Intercession by Lieut. Thomas Burke prevented a battle in the squad car.

20 More Judges or Chaos Perils Courts, Loesch Warns

Frank J. Loesch, president of the Chicago Crime commission, who is also first assistant state's attorney, yesterday advocated the election of 20 new judges to relieve congestion in the courts of Cook county.

"With an increase of more than 1,000,000 in the population of the county since we obtained additional judges six years ago, it is urgent that we now seek legislative authority to elect at least 20 additional judges at this time," said Mr. Loesch. "Under the constitution the county is entitled to 22 more judges, based upon present population figures."

There are now twelve judges assigned to the Criminal court, and they cannot keep up with the indictments. There should be at least fourteen judges sitting permanently in criminal cases, and at this time there should be even more so that the dockets can be cleared up for once, and the permanent judges then can keep abreast of the new business."

"The only way to impress criminals is to punish them surely and speedily. Expense should be a secondary consideration in dealing with our judiciary. And when it comes to that, consider the millions wasted by the auxiliary district on fake pay rolls, and the amount necessary for running twenty additional courts will seem a small amount indeed."

"When judges of the Circuit and Superior courts are assigned to the Criminal court, it is necessary to bring judges from other counties and pay them for doing the civil work of the transferred judges. These judges are not responsible to Cook county voters, nor are they familiar with conditions here. Sometimes their home duties require them to leave in the midst of an important case."

"A little more of this disorganized condition in the courts and chaos will result. We should get down to the legislature and demand that the additional judges be provided."

Mr. Loesch said, as president of the Chicago Crime commission, that he would bend the efforts of the commission toward getting the necessary act passed to provide the new judges at the approaching session of the legislature.

But he took time out first to philosophize on his predicament to the assembled policemen, United States marshals, bondsmen, and hangers-on. Some one had just given his wife, Anna, a package bedecked with holly and miniature Santa Clauses.

"Christmas cheer," mused Joe. "I'm all right," said Joe. "I'll sign."

HOLIDAY GLOOM IN LONDON WILTS AS KING GAINS

Ruler May Urge Britain to Celebrate.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Dec. 21 (11:15 a. m.)—King George's doctors are satisfied with his progress toward recovery. It was learned early this morning. For the first time since the king's illness developed seriously an air of confidence was noticeable at the palace late last night.

Both of yesterday's bulletins were regarded as quite satisfactory. The significance of the continued good news lies in the fact that his majesty is approaching the stage when "complete convalescence" can be felt.

The ultra violet treatment again was given the king before the doctors' evening consultation.

The night bulletin from Buckingham palace read:

"His majesty had a quiet day and general conditions show a very slow, though favorable, course."

Holiday Spirits Flick Up.

The optimism at the palace also has served to brighten holiday spirits in London and throughout Britain. The somber note which has prevailed during the days when the monarch's life hung in the balance showed signs of disappearing. Retail trade, which has suffered millions of dollars in losses, began to spurt as Britons made last minute preparations to celebrate Christmas.

It was stated in ministerial circles that the king and queen do not desire his illness to interfere with the nation's customary Christmas festivities.

FOUNDED BY ICE, FUGITIVE ENDS OWN LIFE

Surrounded by police who were hunting him for the shooting of his 15 year old niece, Gunnar Carlson, 34 year old cab driver, yesterday shot and fatally wounded himself in a private garage at 1832 West Austin avenue. He died a short time later at the county hospital.

His niece, Marie Carlson, complained to her father Thursday night that Carlson had been annoying her. The latter, who lived with them in the home at 614 North Ashland avenue, suddenly drew a pistol and fired at the girl, but the bullet only grazed her head. Carlson then fled and was not found until yesterday, when police located him in the garage in which he had taken refuge. He shot himself before police could break into the garage.

Mrs. Charlotte Thillo, 1846 North Kildare avenue, yesterday identified three of the four alleged bandits who beat her husband, Dr. George W. Thillo, on the night of Dec. 14, when he resisted them. Dr. Thillo died Thursday night from his injuries. The three identified by Mrs. Thillo were Albert Goldstein, 25 years old, both of 4239 North Whipple street, and Lawrence Orden, 23 years old, of Danville, Ill. Mrs. Thillo failed to identify the fourth member of the gang, Dr. Thillo, 19 years old, 4913 Oakley avenue. All four were arrested early Thursday by Lieut. Thomas McGuire and his detective bureau squad in an apartment at 6236 Ingleside avenue.

STATE DEMANDS DEATH PENALTY IN KIDNAP TRIAL

Verdict in Ranieri Case Is Expected Tonight.

A verdict is expected tonight in the trial of the so-called Mafia gang on the charge of the kidnapping of Billy Ranieri. In a session of court last night to expedite the case Assistant State's Attorney Samuel A. Hoffman declared he will ask the death penalty for Angelo Pettiti, accused of attempting to collect ransom for the 17-year-old boy, and Andrew Cappellano, at whose home in Bourbonnais, Ill., Billy was held captive for thirteen days.

Two defendants and Tony Cappellano, 16-year-old son of Andrew, took the stand yesterday in their own defense. The prosecutors indicated they were inclined to leniency for Tony Cappellano. The elder Cappellano's excuse was that he was Billy's keeper through fear. Pettiti's contention was that his ransom negotiations were in good faith as a friend of Billy's father, A. Frank Ranieri, an Italian contractor.

Defense Is Contradicted.

Rebuttal testimony, however, contradicted several of the statements of Pettiti and the elder Cappellano and the prosecutors asserted they had shattered the defense. Attorneys Ben Short and George Guenther for Pettiti and Attorney Clifford Beach of Gilman, Ill., for the Cappellanos have nothing to offer in extenuation except their own arguments.

No session of court was held yesterday morning. Judge Robert E. Gentzel allowed that time for a conference between Attorney Short and Fred Pettiti, brother of Angelo, who has been held by police as a suspect in the slaying last Monday of Ole Scully, an Italian contractor. Scully, who accused Angelo Pettiti of being the leader of a gang of Black Hand extortionists, was to have been a state's witness.

The adjournment of the trial gave Prosecutors Hoffman and Charles J. Meier an opportunity to attend the Scully funeral. Mr. Hoffman praised Scully as a loyal American citizen and a martyr to law and order. Many friends followed the body to Holy Sepulchre cemetery. One of those who attended the funeral was Michael DeVito, who is also a witness against Pettiti in an extortion case and whom Pettiti is alleged to have threatened with death.

Pettiti a Defiant Witness.

Pettiti was a defiant witness in his own behalf. He got into several controversies with Assistant State's Attorney Hoffman, even refusing to stop his own lawyer, Short. Pettiti and Hoffman were pointing their fingers at each other when Attorney Guenther said to Judge Gentzel:

"I object to the threatening attitude of Mr. Hoffman."

What threaten Pettiti? exclaimed Hoffman, who has had a police bodyguard since the murder of Scully.

Pettiti is a short fat man of sullen expression but his dark eyes flashed as he took the stand. He was vehement in some assertions, mumbling in others, sometimes smiling as he answered his own counsel but never when addressing Hoffman.

State Attacks His Testimony.

He said he has a soft drink parlor at 1737 Polk street, that he is married, the father of four children, and will be 40 years old on Christmas day.

Last night Sgt. Thomas Burns testified that there was not one bottle of anything to drink, soft or otherwise, in the place when he arrested Pettiti. This morning the state will call a witness who is expected to show that Pettiti's birthday is Sept. 15.

In response to Short's questions Pettiti said he was born in Italy and is not a Sicilian. He said he has known the elder Ranieri for fifteen years and that they were friends, although he admitted that when he was arrested he said he did not know the boy was kidnapped. He said he made these statements because Ranieri had asked him to tell nothing to the police.

Denies Offer to Free Boy.

Previous testimony has been that after his arrest he made an offer to have the Ranieri boy set free if he also was released. It was stated that he had asked permission to communicate with his wife and brother for this purpose. Last night Pettiti denied having seen his wife or brother while he was in police custody.

Acting Capt. James E. Doherty was recalled to the stand and said he had permitted Fred Pettiti to talk to the prisoner the night after the latter's arrest. By agreement Pettiti was allowed to testify that it was not Fred but another brother whom Capt. Doherty admitted to his cell. A subpoena was issued for Lieut. Stephen Barry as a result of the statement of another witness that Barry had allowed Fred Pettiti and Mrs. Pettiti to see the prisoner in the Shakespearean arena station.

Tells Ransom Negotiations.

Pettiti's story of the ransom negotiations was as follows:

"Frank Ranieri came to my place on Sept. 1 and said, 'I have some bad luck; one of my kids is gone.' I said I didn't believe him; I thought he was kidding. I asked him why he didn't go to the police and tell them, but he said he didn't want to do that."

"He said, 'The have got my boy and they called me and they want $50,000.' Then he said he had given them my name and telephone number and for me to be the middle man and the kidnappers would call me. He said he told them also to call Frank Calabrese, who owns a poolroom."

"That night I got a call. The man said, 'We got the boy, and I said, 'Why don't you bring him back?' Ranieri has not got $50,000 and he's got a sick wife. The man said, 'Never mind, we're going to get the $50,000.'"

"Why didn't you call Mr. Ranieri that night and tell him the boy was safe?" Prosecutor Hoffman asked later, in cross-examination.

"It was too late," Pettiti replied; "he first the time as 9 o'clock."

The next day, his testimony continued, "Ranieri came to me and said I would go and see Calabrese and see if we couldn't arrange with the kidnappers. Calabrese told me Ranieri was willing to pay $5,000. When I was called on the phone by the man who had called before I said, 'Mr. Ranieri's wife is sick. Will you please bring his kid back and he'll give $5,000.' He said, 'Never mind, we don't want no $5,000 and we got the kid all right.'"

"Ranieri said for me not to call him any more at his house because it was full of policemen and newspaper reporters, so I called Nick Ranieri and he asked me to meet him at Diversey and Harlem avenues."

This is the meeting the Ranieri brothers said was arranged for the payment of $5,000 ransom.

Arrested After Meeting.

"I went there," Pettiti went on, "and I called Nick Ranieri and he came and we talked."

"That night I got arrested. Mr. Ranieri came to the police station and I asked him why he had me arrested and he said he hadn't. Capt. Doherty said he'd let me go if I'd find the child. I said, 'What's the use? I don't know anything about it.'"

"You weren't trying to collect any ransom, were you?" Attorney Short asked, and the defendant said he was not.

Fred Pettiti was the next witness and his only testimony was that he had not talked to his brother in any police station. After his testimony the defense announced it had no other evidence. All that had been presented was the general denial by each of the three defendants of participation in the ransom plot and Fred Pettiti's denial.

Andrew Early, 25 years old, and his wife, Anna, 33 years old, were found unconscious yesterday morning in their home at 2715 East 92d street. A gas heater had exhausted the oxygen in their bedroom. Inhalator squad No. 3 of the fire department was summoned and the couple were revived after six hours of artificial respiration. They were then taken to the South Chicago hospital, where it was said they probably would recover.

When the time came for the cruise in southern Europe, Mr. Spindler departed for abroad and he went alone. He visited the scenes of his childhood in Germany. He met old friends and, in October, was remarried, the lawyer related, returning to Chicago with his bride.

Excavating Union, Bosses Sign 5 Year Wage Contract

A wage contract to run for five years was signed yesterday between representatives of 10,000 members of the Excavating, Grading and Asphalt Workers' union and of the Chicago Contractors' association. It was announced by D. S. Bosley, secretary of the contractors' organization. Mr. Bosley said the present wage scales will remain unchanged, and explained that the contract was made for five years in order to extend through the world's fair of 1935.

The prosecutors said the penalty to be fixed by the jury if they find any or all of the defendants guilty may be either death in the electric chair, life imprisonment, or a penitentiary sentence of not less than five years.

Andrew Cappellano's testimony yesterday was that Billy Ranieri had not Andrew Cappellano, the third defendant, testified that he was acting on his father's orders in staying constantly in the upstairs bedroom with the Ranieri boy. He said he spent most of the 13 days with Billy "to keep him company so he wouldn't be crying all the time." He said Billy never asked to be permitted to go out or to go home and never mentioned that he had been kidnapped.

The prosecutors said the penalty to be fixed by the jury if they find any or all of the defendants guilty may be either death in the electric chair, life imprisonment, or a penitentiary sentence of not less than five years.

DIVORCEE SUES RICH EX-SUITOR; SEEKS $250,000

Charges Oscar Spindler Jilted Her.

Oscar Spindler, 68 years old, wealthy manufacturer and a church deacon, who was recently remarried, yesterday was sued for $250,000 in superior court by Mrs. Louise Milost, a comely divorcee, 30 years old, residing at 836 Belmont avenue. The charge is breach of promise to marry, according to her lawyer, Albert Sabath.

Mr. Spindler, who, among other things, is president of the Decorators Supply company, met Mrs. Milost in 1916 and, the attorney related, was attentive toward her, although his first wife was living at the time. The first wife, Mrs. Salome Weigand Spindler, to whom he was married in 1888 and who was the mother of his two children, died last May.

Arrange for Honeymoon.

Mrs. Milost and Mr. Spindler became engaged, it is charged. The wedding was set for September and arrangements were made for a honeymoon cruise on the Mediterranean, according to Attorney Sabath.

On the eve of the wedding, the lawyer related, Mr. Spindler presented a prenuptial financial contract for the signature of the divorcee. He explained that he wanted his children on his death to enjoy a large portion of his estate, said to amount to $1,000,000. She refused to sign.

The manufacturer then experienced a change of heart, it is alleged, and wanted to withdraw from the betrothal. He offered her a $75,000 trust fund for a release from the engagement, according to Attorney Sabath, and this she also refused.

Goes Abroad Alone.

When the time came for the cruise in southern Europe, Mr. Spindler departed for abroad and he went alone. He visited the scenes of his childhood in Germany. He met old friends and, in October, was remarried, the lawyer related, returning to Chicago with his bride.

Mr. Spindler resides at 2976 Lake Park avenue. His clubs are the Illinois Athletic, the South Shore Country, the Chicago Architectural, and the Palette and Chisel.

WHALEN DROPS HOMICIDE SQUAD AND ITS CHIEF

New York, Dec. 21.—[Special.]—Police Commissioner Grover A. Whalen abolished the homicide squad and retired its chief, Inspector Arthur A. Carey on the pension of a captain today when Carey refused to resign. He had been reminded that the twenty men under his command had made only two arrests in 223 homicide cases reported to them from Jan. 1 to Dec. 20 this year. It is the squad to which fell the duty of investigation of the Rothstein case.

Instead of the central office bureau which Carey inaugurated nearly 15 years ago and had directed ever since, homicide squads will be established in each of the five boroughs under acting captains and lieutenants, accountable directly to deputy chief inspectors with increased responsibility. Mr. Whalen announced, as part of a reorganization plan of decentralization and "narrowing of authority."

THREE CAPTURED AS THEY TRAIL GEM SALESMAN

Three men, accused of being robbers bent on taking a large amount of jewelry from a salesman they were following through crowds of Christmas shoppers, were arrested by Detective Sergeant Daniel Moriarty at State and Madison streets yesterday afternoon.

They are: Lazar Goldman, 35 years old, 1114 South Homan avenue; Joseph Flore, 26 years old, 3224 Polk street, and Morris Aronson, 1409 South Kostner avenue.

A checkup at the bureau of identification showed that Goldman is the Louis Goldman who was sentenced to fifteen to twenty years in the Michigan prison at Ionia last summer. He pleaded guilty to robbing a Detroit jeweler. Later he asked permission to withdraw the plea and demanded a new trial. The Michigan Supreme court granted him a writ of superseas and he was released on bonds six weeks ago.

PHONE CO. TURNS DOWN FRANCHISE EXTENSION PLAN

Opposition to City Move Jolts Aldermen.

Negotiations for a new franchise for the Illinois Bell Telephone company received a setback yesterday when the company notified the city council committee on gas, oil and electricity that it has "serious objections" to an extension of its present grant after it expires on Jan. 8.

The aldermen had proffered a ninety-day extension of the grant and the company's letter, indicating that it will accept an extension only at its own terms, was interpreted by some as a threat to ignore the city altogether and go to the Illinois commerce commission for a franchise. It also brought to a new focus the question of how far the city's powers have been stripped away by the state public utility act of 1913.

Company Opposes Extension.
The kernel of the company's communication, signed by W. R. Abbott, president, was this sentence:

"There would be serious objections on our part to accepting a temporary extension of the present ordinance, since many of its provisions have been rendered obsolete by the adoption of state-wide regulation of public utilities."

Mr. Abbott reminded the committee that the company demands certain concessions in the new franchise draft it has submitted, including payment to the city of a fee of 3 per cent of operating revenues instead of gross revenues, elimination of $130,000 worth of free service to the city annually, and abolition of its maintenance of the city department of public service. The company is unwilling to forego these concessions even while negotiations are in progress, Mr. Abbott said.

Would Run Without Grant.

He suggested that these matters be held in abeyance until the negotiations are finished. During this time, under his plan, the company would operate without a franchise, an unprecedented procedure.

"If you accept the terms of this letter you are lost," declared Senator Roy O. Woods, attorney for the committee. "It gives a clear understanding that the company does not take any ordinance except the new one they demand. They think they have a monopoly and can get away with it." Senator Woods advised the committee to bring the issue to a showdown immediately by informing the company that after Jan. 8 it must pay for the use of the city's streets.

Ald. A. K. McLaughlin, chairman of the Abbott letter "an insult to the

QUAKES

MANILA, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Manila learned today that a violent earthquake shook the greater part of Mindanao island Wednesday night. One person was killed at Cotabato, capital of the province of that name. Many houses collapsed and fire broke out, but it was quickly controlled. An undetermined number of persons were injured. The damage was estimated at $100,000. The tremor also was felt in Zamboanga and Davao, two other provinces of Mindanao, but little damage was done in those areas. The weather bureau estimated that the quake had its center in the Celebes sea, 400 miles south of Manila.

Krakatau Erupts Again.
BATAVIA, Java, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The volcano island of Krakatau has become active again. Fragments of red hot rock were spouted last night to the height of 300 feet. The eruption occurred after several underground earth tremors and rumblings.

Urged Even More Drastic Action.

"The company is trying to hold the big stick over our heads," he asserted. "I say to hell with the telephone company. Let's go out and fight them. Throw the old ordinance on the table and let them take it or leave it."

Other members of the committee, however, advised a more cautious procedure. Chairman Jacob Arvey (24th), pointed out the futility of trying to force the company to tear down its poles and rip up its conduits.

The upshot of the meeting was the adoption of a motion by Ald. Cronin that the extension ordinance be drafted and presented to the committee at its next meeting on Dec. 27 with the hope that the company will change its mind and accept it in some form.

Debate Rights of City.

Earlier in the session, the committee spent a half hour discussing the respective rights of the city and the Illinois commerce commission in dealing with public utilities. It was unanimously agreed that the city's right to regulate rates of fare and service is completely stripped away and handed over to the commission. The recent Supreme court decisions in the North Shore and Chicago Motor Coach cases were cited.

Senator Woods announced that he expects to have introduced at the January session of the legislature a bill interpreting the public utilities act to clear the city's rights regarding franchises.

REALTY DEALERS OFFER SERVICES IN REVALUATION

County Seeks New Law in Taxation Crisis.

The Cook county Real Estate board yesterday offered President Anton J. Cermak of the county board, the board of assessors, and the board of review the free services of a hundred realty experts for realty tax revaluation work should the supreme court's decision of Thursday block other means of continuing this work.

At the same time County Commissioner Harry A. Newby, chairman of the finance committee, and other officials prepared for a conference next week with Governor Elect Louis L. Thompson on legislation to relieve the situation.

Supreme Court Sustained Position.
The supreme court sustained the position taken by County Treasurer George P. Harding that under existing statutes the maximum salary for deputy assessors is $10 a day. Trained valuers cannot be hired at this rate.

Other Bodies to Help.

President Cermak is sponsoring the creation of a county budget bureau to act in an advisory capacity in reducing tax expenditures by coordinating the budgets of the county's 400 governmental bodies.

A proposal is to have these tax spending bodies help the county collect taxes. The sanitary district, the first to respond to the proposal, has mailed a check for $5,000 to help finance the revaluation and proposes to urge the city council to include such an appropriation in the 1929 budget.

The aldermen, by resolution, have pledged such help. The school board has also been solicited. In the discussion there has been some doubt raised as to the legality of other governmental agencies paying the county's bills.

Estelion Meets Objection.

Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Estelion recognized this legal objection as valid, but in approving the council's resolution to supply revaluation funds he met the objection in an opinion thus:

"If a way can be found by which the city will carry on its investigation and survey, paying its own employees therefor, and the board of assessors can avail itself of the benefits of such researches, it is quite possible that it will be to the interest of the general public and the city to proceed with the work under an appropriation made by the city of Chicago."

In the meantime Harry S. Cutmore, director of revaluations, said the work will continue as it has for several weeks, with the experts accepting the $10 a day rate plus a promise for more in the future.

Reveal Details of City's Enabling Bills for Subway

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Further details of the city's bills for enabling legislation permitting subway construction and the creation of a local utility commission to supervise transportation, were made public yesterday. The bills, prepared by Assistant Corporation Counsel John G. Brennan and Frederick Bangs, are now being considered by the transit committee.

The subway bill first grants power to the city to construct or otherwise acquire subways, then grants power of eminent domain for condemnation of both real estate and personal property interfering with subway construction. Specific authority is granted the city to levy special assessments for all or part of the cost of bonds. For any costs not obtained in this way the city may issue bonds and use any available funds, including the $4 million dollar traction fund.

Use of Tracks May Be Limited.

After subways have been built, tracks may be laid in them without franchise consent. The use of these may be leased for any period of time to any railroad or street car company. The city is given the power to require utilities having pipes, wires, conduits and other property in the street to place them in the surplus space in the subway. If the utilities balk, the city may relocate the utility property, charge the cost to the utility construction, and seek reimbursement later.

To expedite the project, any claim for damage shall be placed on a special court calendar.

The subway bill has some features of insertion or omission not contained either in the bill of the companies, presented to the last session of the legislature, nor in the bill as amended, nor in the bill subsequently prepared by the aldermen.

Creates Local Commission.

The other bill, creating a local utility commission to supervise local transportation within Chicago and the county, and in municipalities therein, if they vote for it, provides that the commission is to have the same powers over transit matters which the Illinois commerce commission now exercises.

The commission is to consist of five members, residing in the district, appointed by the mayor with the consent of the city council, for a term of five years each, with one appointment each year after the first five are selected.

The salary of each commissioner is to be $12,000 a year and the commission is to have a secretary at $7,000 and six employees, none of whom are to be under civil service. The expense of the commission is to be paid by the city. Its office is to be in Chicago and its records open to public inspection.

It is to be prohibited from changing transit fares for the first ten years of the transit franchise, in accordance with the proposed ordinance. The jurisdiction of the commission is to be over all street railways and railroads in the district, which "operate principally within a city of more than 2,500,000 inhabitants by authority of a contract ordinance now in force or that may hereafter be adopted by which such city may, at some time in the future, acquire the ownership thereof or designate a permittee which shall have the right after such designation to acquire the ownership of the same."

To Control Buses Also.

It also shall have jurisdiction over "all omnibus lines, including every omnibus, stage or motor vehicle operated within such district wholly or mainly for passenger transportation"; also all street railways and railroads doing primarily a suburban passenger business, and all omnibus lines in any village or city in the county, upon the granting of such consent by village or city.

The statement of A. W. Harris, the banker, that the financial plan in the proposed ordinance is unworkable, caused considerable of a shock yesterday among the councilmen.

"It is strange that he has just discovered it yesterday," commented Ald. Frankhauser, chairman of the subcommittee negotiating the franchise. "He is one of Chicago's financiers and has had access to the proposed ordinance since last September. What has he done as chairman of the bondholders' protective committee to help solve the tangle? Wherein are the practical financial defects in this ordinance?"

Kelker Answers Statement.

Mr. R. F. Kelker, engineer of the committee, who fathered the financial plan, also commented on the Harris statement. "The first statement is that the ordinance is 'essentially a municipal ownership franchise.' That is untrue," Mr. Kelker declared. "It is essentially an ordinance which will assure surface line extensions, the building of new L lines, the construction of adequate transportation for Chicago and the metropolitan district."

"It does confer upon the city the power of municipal ownership. There is no ordinance for an indeterminate franchise which will not be perpetual unless the city is given the power to buy or name a permittee who can buy. These are the provisions which Samuel Insull said should be made part of the franchise. If Mr. Harris wants an indeterminate franchise, without the city having the power to buy, he wants a perpetual franchise, in my opinion."

Purchase Can Be Provented.
"The ordinance does not require the city ever to buy. The public can prevent the city from buying by refusing the fare so that there will not be sufficient money."

Mr. Harris and the bondholders' protective committee may be asked to appear before the aldermen and tell specifically what sort of financial plan they desire for investors.

SANITARY BOARD GIVES UP HOPE OF NEW BOND ISSUE

Appeal to Bank Syndicate in Financial Crisis.

All hope of passing a new bond issue ordinance of $27,000,000 and selling it before Jan. 1 was abandoned yesterday by the trustees of the sanitary district. After a three-hour secret session the trustees were still puzzled as to what procedure to follow in getting the money necessary to carry out the war department.

The trustees met formally after the secret conference, but took no action. They will convene again this morning. In the meantime it was learned efforts will be made to persuade the syndicate of bankers, which purchased the bond issue authorized on Nov. 22, to accept the bonds despite the fact that the validity of the ordinance under which they were issued is being attacked in court. A possibility of reducing the price of the bonds in order to make them acceptable to the bankers was suggested.

Cloud on Other Bonds.

A decision against the sanitary district in the pending suit, it was pointed out, would cast a cloud on $50,000,000 in bonds previously issued by the drainage board under a similar ordinance.

The financial situation of the district became critical as a result of a decision Thursday by Superior Judge Joseph Fitch overruling the board's demurrer to the suit brought to enjoin the trustees from issuing $27,000,000 in bonds. The decision forced the suit to a trial on its merits, with indications that it might result in the restraining order being issued on the ground that the bond ordinance was not sufficiently specific in stating the purposes for which the proceeds of the issue were to be spent.

Only Ten Days Left.

The trustees have only ten days in which to work out a solution to the dilemma. A new law which becomes effective on January 1 requires that all further sanitary district bond issues must be submitted to the voters.

President Howard W. Elmore stated that the next move of the trustees was much in doubt but hoped that the matter will be thrashed out at today's meeting.

PLAN SHORT SWEET PROGRAM AT TRIBUNE

Dedication Monday in Grant Park

Short and sweet—that's the program The Tribune has planned for the dedication Monday (Christmas eve) of Chicago's new Christmas tree, the stands just east of the bridge Madison street in Grant Park.

A scintillating spectacle, its bards of vivid green, and crimson ornaments, its reflectors, artificial snow, wreaths and garlands, tips of the topmost branches, pointed star thirty inches in diameter.

Crews of workmen spent the erection and decoration of Chicago's most wonderful tree, and its most modern treatment of the illumination parts from the usual cut strings among branches into a rainbow effects play and upon the tree from below, by the tree from below, by the tree from below.

700 Trees in One

It is one of the largest trees—if not the largest—set up for the city. It comprises a separate tree.

It's too wonderful a tree to have a dedication program festive an occasion not to be observed at 8 o'clock.

So the ceremony of the switch that reveals the tree that would put Solomon's tree to shame, will be held at 8 o'clock, with carols by chorists and a few bands.

The entire program will occupy less than an hour.

Celebrate Tomorrow
A trio of communities are scheduled for tomorrow night at the three Tribune stands in strategic locations north, west, and south sides of the city.

Lincoln park will celebrate North Avenue entrance, where the stately tree illuminated by the park board focal point for north side clubs and clubs. Sen. I. and Lane Tech High school play and there will be carolers, chorists, and the Ukrainian.

At the Washington boulevard to Garfield park male chorus of fifty voices.

High school girls' band, the chorus of 350 voices from playgrounds, and the entire program will take the entire night.

Plans Side Event
South side residents will front of the Fountain of Midway Plaisance, where stands in the center of green just west of Oak Avenue. The Auburn Park of sixty-two pieces will play from the south park building and start a program, which will take the entire night.

More than 200 children will participate.

PLAN SHORT BUT SWEET PROGRAM AT TRIBUNE TREE

Dedication Monday Evening in Grant Park.

Short and sweet—that's the type of program THE TRIBUNE has in prospect for the dedication Monday night (Christmas eve) of Chicago's community Christmas tree, the giant that stands just east of the boulevard opposite Madison street in Grant park. A scintillating spectacle it is, with its burden of vivid green and yellow of crimson ornaments, its gleaming tinsel, artificial snow and icicles, wreaths and garlands. And at the top of the tallest branch, a huge nine-pointed star thirty inches in diameter. Crews of workmen spent days in the erection and decoration of this, Chicago's most wonderful Christmas tree, and its most modern one. For the treatment of the illumination departs from the usual colored lights strung among branches, and substitutes rainbow effects played through and upon the tree from various angles below, by means of revolving floodlights.

700 Trees in One.
It is one of the largest Christmas trees—if not the largest—ever to be set up, for it comprises a total of 700 separate trees.
It's too wonderful a tree not to have a dedication program. It's too festive an occasion not to have an evening program, and it's too cold weather not to make it a brief program.
As the ceremony of throwing the torch that reveals the tree in splendor to would put Solomon to shame is to be observed at 8 o'clock on Monday night, with carols by the Paulist choir and a few band numbers. The entire program will probably occupy less than an hour.

Celebrate Tomorrow Night.
A trio of community celebrations are scheduled for tomorrow (Sunday) night at the three Tribune trees that stand in strategic locations on the north, west, and south sides. The time is 7 o'clock.

Lincoln park will celebrate at the North avenue entrance, on the drive, where the stately tree that was decorated by the park board will be the focal point for north side organizations and clubs. Senn High school and Lake Tech High school bands will play and there will be carols by the Swedish singers, Finnish American chorus and the Ukrainian group.
At the Washington boulevard entrance to Garfield park the Griggs High school girls' band, the children's chorus of 250 voices from various playgrounds, and other features will make up the entertainment.

Plans Side Event.
South side residents will gather in front of the Fountain of Time on the midway plinthe, where the tree stands in the center of the stretch of green just west of Cottage Grove avenue. The Auburn Park Boys' band of sixty-two pieces will parade to the tree from the south park administration building and start off the program, which will take the form of a musical entertainment "The Night Before Christmas."

More than 200 children in costume will participate.

GERMAN PRINCE SAYS VERDUN WAS 'DAGGER IN SIDE'

Unknown War Facts Bared by Memoirs.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—[U.P.]—Verdun—the battered fortress that was a rampart for Paris—was pictured today as a dagger that bled the arteries of the German army in additional memoirs of former Crown Prince Wilhelm of Germany, who commanded the Fifth German army on the western front.

L'Illustration, publishing the memoirs, pictured unknown facts of the war and quoted the former crown prince:

"In the long line from Holland, Verdun was like a dagger always sticking into the vital parts and emptying the arteries of the German army."

Planned Open Warfare.

The former crown prince explains that the German army strategy planned ten years before, had anticipated defeat of the French in open warfare. Verdun was considered, but tactics had made its siege overlaborate, and the former crown prince army, deprived of adequate reinforcements because of the stubborn resistance of the French forces, faced the series of sturdy emplacements about Verdun.

The stubborn fight which centered about Verdun—the terrific bombardments that reduced many of the forts to powdered masonry—are matters of well known history.

Wishes Frenchmen Good New Year.

The former crown prince's admiration of the French commander's defense took a gallant turn on New Year's day, 1915.

L'Illustration showed documents, produced for the first time, bearing the prince's autograph.

A German captain, leading buglers bearing a white flag of truce through the advance French lines, carried a card to Gen. Sarrail, the French commander at Verdun. The card read:

"I wish to my chivalrous adversary a happy New Year."

"WILHELM, Crown Prince."

POLICE NEEDS HALT ALDERMEN IN BUDGET SLASH

Session Deadlocked on Reductions.

The city council finance committee last night struck the first snag in its 1929 budget economy program in the department of police. After a two-hour wrangle, the committee adjourned in an apparent deadlock over decreases in the department.

Two days ago the committee unanimously decided to trim the city's operating expenses from $42,000,000 to $37,000,000 and wipe out the existing deficit. They approved the estimates of City Controller George K. Schmidt which automatically eliminated $3,200,000 and agreed to strike out the customary 3 per cent salvage appropriation, amounting to $1,800,000.

On its first day the committee took out $250,000. Yesterday they swung the ax with less fervor and the day's total cuts were only $37,000, a total for the two days of $337,000 out of $5,000,000. The police department was the first big division reached. The heavy appropriations of the law, fire, health, and public works departments and board of local improvements are still ahead.

Administration Men Balk.
"So far as I'm concerned we'll keep our pledge no matter whom it hits," asserted Chairman John S. Clark [20th] last night. Some of the administration aldermen, however, complained that the city was being crippled and wanted the committee to ease up.

The cuts made yesterday included $5,400 from the department of compensation; $5,600 from the civil serv-

CUTTEN BUYS TWO ART WINDOWS AS RELICS OF OLD BOARD OF TRADE

Two of the stained glass windows in the old Board of Trade building, which is now being wrecked at La Salle street and Jackson boulevard, have been bought by Arthur W. Cutten, grain operator. It was learned yesterday. Mr. Cutten said he wished to keep them, not only for their artistic value, but also as mementoes of the old board. They are now stored at his farm near Glen Ellyn.

Eleven other stained glass windows remain in the building. These, the contractors said, will be salvaged and offered for sale. Mr. Cutten has also asked for the two large statues, representing Labor and Commerce, which stood above the Jackson boulevard entrance.

Among other relics which will survive the passing of the old board is the large bell which tolled the opening and closing of trade for 43 years. It is stored in the basement of the temporary board at 453 South Clark street, and it is said that it will be returned to its old duty in the new building.

ice commission, and $1,000 from the department of supplies. Approximately $25,000 had been taken from the police department by removing five lieutenants and several clerks when the committee balked.

"You can't decrease the police force and get away with it," declared Ald. James E. Bowler [35th]. "The people will not stand for it. We haven't enough policemen on the streets now." Several close roll calls were taken on motions to strike out all deputy commissioners' positions and to reduce the force of captains and other officers. Finally, unable to agree, the committee adjourned until this morning when the police discussion will be renewed.

Russell Urges Increase.
During the afternoon, Commissioner W. P. Russell appeared before the committee to urge an increase, rather than a decrease, in his forces. He asked for two additional deputy com-

WOMAN IS HURT IN COLLISION OF AUTO AND TAXI

Mrs. Thomas I. Stacey, 59 years old, 1314 Church street, Evanston, whose husband, president of the Electrical Appliance company, committed suicide a year ago, yesterday suffered cuts and internal injuries when her automobile collided at Wesley avenue and Dempster street, Evanston, with a taxicab driven by H. J. Hildebrand, 1423 Oakton street, Evanston.

A detective bureau squad car, after a mile chase, overtook an automobile that struck and injured Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, 53 years old, 5448 South May street, at 59th and May streets. Those arrested were Daniel McGeehan, 4425 South Marshall avenue; Joseph Cainski, 1754 West Garfield avenue, and Steve Oswald, 2220 West 67th street.

AFGHAN REBEL CHIEFTAIN IS SHOT IN BATTLE

BERLIN, Dec. 21.—[U.P.]—The leader of the Afghan rebel forces, Barcha Sagar, has been wounded in fighting near Kabul, according to advices received by the foreign office today from the German legation at the Afghan capital. The advices said the revolt against King Amanullah's reform laws apparently was nearing an end, although the situation still must be considered serious.

British Legation Safe

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] LONDON, Dec. 21.—The latest night news in London from Afghanistan is more reassuring. The British legation at Kabul is reported to be safe, but still cut off from the city. For on either side of the city have been taken by the rebels, who now are between the legation and Kabul. The only means of communicating with the British minister is by air.

The Afghan legation in London tonight admits that the "band of robbers" with whom the British minister conversed some days ago totaled 7,000 well armed men disguised as Afghan troops, "giving rise to the report that part of Amir Amanullah Khan's army had revolted."

FINAL FIGURES SHOW THE WAY VOTE WENT NOV. 6

Nation Broke Record with 36,798,669 Ballots.

[Copyright 1928, By the Associated Press.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Of the 36,798,669 votes cast in the November election, the largest number in the history of the nation, Herbert Hoover received 21,429,109 and Alfred E. Smith received 15,065,497. The Republican candidate's plurality over that of his Democratic opponent was 6,423,612.

Candidates of minor parties received 384,063 votes, aside from those for Hoover or Smith, as follows: Thomas, Socialist, 267,535; Foster, Workers, 48,223; Reynolds, Socialist-Labor, 21,151; Varney, Prohibition, 23,101; Webb, Farmer-Labor, 6,391; scattered, 227.

Plurality Smaller by Million.
Despite his large plurality, Mr. Hoover failed by 914,901 votes to equal the plurality of 1,338,513 given Calvin Coolidge over John W. Davis in 1924, but at that time the La Follette-Wheeler independent ticket received 4,822,856 votes. In that year the Republican vote was 18,725,916.

While the Republicans carried 27 states in 1924, they garnered 49 in the recent election. This represents the most overwhelming defeat ever suffered by the Democratic party in the electoral college. Gov. Smith's popular vote, however, exceeded by 6,628,294 the 8,386,503 polled in 1924 by Davis.

33 1/2% Vote Increase in South.
The total November vote cast exceeded by 7,707,253 the total of 29,091,417 cast four years ago. Much of the increase was accounted for in the southern states, where approximately 33 1/2 per cent more votes were cast. The increase for the nation as a whole was slightly above 25 per cent.

Votes for the two major parties in the once traditionally Democratic 12 southern states totaled 3,094,145, with 1,496,488 going to Hoover and 1,597,657 to Smith, the states considered being Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, and Virginia. Of this group Hoover carried Florida, North Carolina, Texas, and Virginia, which had supported Democratic presidential candidates since reconstruction days.

ALSATIAN KILLS PROSECUTOR OF AUTONOMY TRIAL
[Chicago Tribune From Service.]
PARIS, Dec. 21.—An aftermath of the recent attempts of the French government to put down the Alsatian autonomy movement happened in Paris today when a fanatical Alsatian patriot fired three revolver shots at Charles Faeh, government prosecuting attorney, who last summer conducted the prosecution which resulted in the conviction of a number of Alsatian autonomists. M. Faeh died tonight of his wounds.

The assassin later walked into a police station and surrendered. M. Faeh, who is an Alsatian, received numerous death threats after his vigorous arguments at the famous Colmar trial which resulted in the jailing of numerous autonomists, including two deputies. The assassin boasted that he had saved Alsace-Lorraine by his act. He is a young Alsatian butcher named Georges Benoit, with a wife and two children.

DID NORSEMEN BEAT COLUMBUS? FINDS NO PROOF

Whether Lief Ericson's men landed in North America years before the voyage of Christopher Columbus remains a moot question as far as any positive evidence of the Norsemen's priority is concerned, according to a report of research on the matter made public yesterday by Stephen C. Stungis, director of the Field museum.

The report was prepared by Dr. William Duncan Strong, assistant curator of North American ethnology and archaeology at the museum, who acted as anthropologist for the Rawson-McMillan submarine expedition. Dr. Strong leaves upon the question of whether the Norsemen were the discoverers of America. He declares, however, that ruins on Skupin island in the coast of Labrador, frequently cited as possible proof of an ancient Norse settlement, leads to the conclusion that they are merely the remains of an old Eskimo wintering camp.

"While I do not deny that the Norsemen may have landed in America about 900 A. D., as the legends indicate," Dr. Strong states, "no tangible evidence to support this belief has been found so far."

ATTORNEY DENIES PLOTING RUIN OF CHECKER CO.

Paul L'Amoreaux, attorney for the Checker Cab Manufacturing company of New Jersey, yesterday took the stand in the taxi hearing before Master in Chancery Thomas J. Peden and denied all the charges made against him by the Checker Taxi company.

Attorneys for the taxi company, after the New Jersey concern had instituted a suit for $1,500,000 against the Checker Cab company, charged L'Amoreaux with plotting the ruin of the Checker Taxi company.

The taxi litigation was further complicated yesterday when counsel for the Checker Taxi company filed a motion before Federal Judge James H. Wilkeson, frequently cited as possible proof of an ancient Norse settlement, leads to the conclusion that they are merely the remains of an old Eskimo wintering camp.

"While I do not deny that the Norsemen may have landed in America about 900 A. D., as the legends indicate," Dr. Strong states, "no tangible evidence to support this belief has been found so far."

SEEKS TO PUNISH OFFICIAL DOM'S DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Sackett Wants U. S. to Set Good Example.

[Chicago Tribune From Service.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Twin proposals to eliminate drunken drivers from officialdom were offered in the senate today by Senator Frederic M. Sackett (Rep., Ky.).

One would provide for the summary dismissal of any federal employee convicted of driving while intoxicated. The other would recommend to the President that he request the recall of any diplomat or attaché of a foreign mission who claims diplomatic immunity to escape prosecution on such a charge.

Not "Prohibition Bills."
Neither of the two proposals, the senator asserted, are "prohibition bills," nor, he insisted, were they introduced at the behest of any dry organization. They represent, he told the senate, a method by which the federal government, setting an example for similar legislation by state and municipal governments, can assume leadership in a nation-wide move to curb the growing list of victims of drunken drivers.

Every civil officer and employee of the government, including officers and men of the army, navy, and marine corps, and excepting only the President, the Justices of the United States Supreme court, and federal court judges, whose salaries, by constitutional provision, may not be diminished during their terms of office, would be liable to dismissal under the first of the two Sackett proposals.

Would Hit Diplomats.
This measure would require department and bureau heads to notify the controller general promptly of the conviction of any employee. It provides for the dishonorable discharge of enlisted men in the army, navy, or marine corps if convicted of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

The companion proposal, a resolution, would express "the sense of the senate that the President should request the recall or dismissal of any diplomatic agent or member of the official or nonofficial suite of a diplomatic mission of a foreign country who asserts his immunity from arrest or prosecution for the offense of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, or who is convicted of such offense in any court of competent jurisdiction."

ALASKAN RAILROAD WILL MAKE CHICAGO ITS HEADQUARTERS

[Chicago Tribune From Service.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Chicago is to be the center of activities in a new Alaskan colonization program to be inaugurated by the interior department.

Announcement was made by Secretary of the Interior Roy O. West today of his approval of a recommendation by O. F. Olson, general manager of the Alaska railroad, that an office be opened for solicitation of tourist travel and the development of a colonization program.

G. C. Dickens, general freight, passenger, and immigration agent, who has been serving in Washington as general agent of the railroad, will be in charge of the Chicago office.

The Alaska railroad has been a white elephant of the government's hands and has continued to roll up annual operating deficits close to a million dollars.

Last year's operating deficit for Alaska railroad was $400,890. The last fiscal year was only the second year in which the deficit had been less than one million dollars. Operating deficits in the last half dozen years have aggregated more than ten million dollars.

In spite of the claims of those who induced congress to authorize construction of the railroad that it would mean a big boom for the territory, the population steadily has dwindled.

Chicago was selected as the location of the traffic office of the railroad because of its advantageous position from a transportation point of view and because a large part of the Alaskan traffic originates in the middle west.

Quicker and more direct contact will be given, it is felt, with the office of the transcontinental railroads than by working from Washington.

AID OF SMALL FACES QUIZ IN INSURANCE CASE

Pekin, Ill., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—E. U. Bailey of Princeton, Ill., director of trade and commerce for the state and right hand man of Gov. Len Small, faces an inquiry into his settlement claims against the defunct Bull Dog Insurance company of one-third their estimated total. It was revealed here today.

It is charged that Bailey, who acted as liquidator, settled claims amounting to $100,000 for $20,000.

On Jan. 20, 1927, a petition to force the Bull Dog Auto Fire Insurance company with home offices at Washington, Ill., into liquidation was entered in the court of Judge J. E. Daley at the instance of Attorney General Oscar Carstrom and Bailey was named liquidator.

Trouble had arisen in the Texas and Pennsylvania departments of the company and the Washington concern crashed.

Paul R. Goddard and Theodore Boehm, said to be heavily interested in the concern, acted as attorneys in fact and spent much of their own money to settle outstanding claims. It is hinted that attorneys' fees were out of all proportion and that other irregularities took place.

Although a compromise was effected and all claims were said to have been settled by June 6, 1928, the Bull Dog case is still before a master in chancery who is considering a claim from Texas in which C. L. Conder, Pekin, is attorney for the claimant.

AGED MAN ENDS OWN LIFE.
Rudolph Schrader, 80 years old, 1506 South Wabash avenue, Berwyn, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself at his home. He had been dependent on ill health, the police were told.

GOVERNOR ELECT OF KANSAS FIGHTS BOOZE PARTIES OF LOBBYISTS

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Charging that liquor laws had been "flagrantly violated" in Topeka during legislative sessions in the past, Clyde M. Reed, governor elect, today notified the attorney general and Shawnee county officials that he would expect vigorous law enforcement during the sessions of the legislature convening in January.

"Throughout sessions of the legislature in recent years the growing use of booze parties given by lobbyists with the intention of influencing legislation has become a matter of common knowledge and growing apprehension on the part of good citizenship," Mr. Reed said, in a letter to the officials. "Not only is the prohibition law being flagrantly violated in Topeka during legislative sessions but the manner of its violation constitutes a danger to public interest."

Mr. Reed quoted Gov. Paulsen as declaring at the close of the last session of the legislature:

"The railroads and the associated industries are riding for a hard fall. One or two more sessions of the legislature such as the last one, and they will have the people ready for a revolution."

The governor elect asserted that the "corporation lobby already has had a big booze party at one of the principal hotels in Topeka," at which, he said, committee assignments in the senate were discussed.

Goebel, Flying Ace, Has Pneumonia After Operation

Whitish, Kan., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Col. Arthur C. Goebel, noted flyer and winner of the Dole air race from California to Hawaii, has developed pneumonia following an operation here Wednesday for appendicitis. Attending physicians said today one lung was affected and that Goebel's condition was "not satisfactory."

CITY IS PREPARED FOR ITS HOLIDAY WHOOPEE, REPORT

Liquor Isn't Moving In— It's Already Here.

Notwithstanding any plans Mr. E. C. Yellowley may have to the contrary, Chicago this year promises to make holiday whoopee on a grand scale. Mr. Yellowley is prohibition administrator. As such he is dead set against alcoholic festivity.

Inquiry indicates that although there may not be so much liquor moving into the city, the bootleggers, being far-sighted business men, have long since seen to it that nobody goes short during holiday week. The men who provide the city's spirits say that the home celebrant has his basement well stocked, the man about town will obtain all he wants at his club; and the son of industry will find a speaker handy.

If the accounts of the local captains of the booze industry may be believed, there is enough liquor in town to float a ship—and they claim it will be impossible for Mr. Yellowley and his forces to scuttle the craft.

Whoopie Starts Tonight. All indications are that the annual whoopie will start when the whistle blows this evening and that Bacchus will reign until sometime in the early hours of a week from Wednesday.

So far as the quality of the city's supply for the holidays is concerned, the bootleggers say there are all grades available, depending on what and how the customer pays. If the dispenser is honest and the cash is paid right on the line, the chances are that good stuff will be forthcoming. Mellow old ryes and bourbons that drip from the glass like honey, and leave a bouquet in the glass to make the tongue water, are rather rare, but are obtainable, it is reported. The supply drops in quality from there on down through the various stages of cut whiskey and on to the "genuine stuff" that is made and "aged" out on the west side.

Here's Latest Product.

This "magic whiskey," as it is called in the trade, so to speak, is the latest product of the bootleggers' fertile brains. A batch of alcohol—recooked—and water is poured into a charred vat. Then a powerful electric light of German invention is lowered into the concoction. Each hour it is left in the fluid represents so many years of aging. When the light is lifted, the white fluid has turned a ripe amber, a few drops of essence of bourbon are added—and it is "magic whiskey."

"But it won't stay aged long," a kindly and loquacious expert said. "In about three weeks it reverts to type and is just alcohol and water again. But there is always a quick turnover, so that doesn't make any difference."

It's just a matter of getting rid of it fast—and these days that's no problem at all.

The best information obtainable is that Chicago's consumption of "magic whiskey" ordinarily is about 1,000 pints a week. During the holiday season that will mount to 5,000 pints a week, it is estimated.

Price List Is Standard.

The bootleggers say that competition for the business is keen and prices to the consumer are about standard.

Rye whiskey, such as Corby's, Gooderham and Worts', Seagram's, Walker's and Wier's, sell to the consumer for $35. to $100 a case; all the assorted bourbons are about the same. American rye varies from $35 to $110; Scotch from Canada (40 ounce bottles) sells for $30, and Scotch from Scotland at $110.

Real gins of all brands may be purchased at $30, but only about 1/4 of 1 per cent is real. Synthetic products made up as real gins may be bottled at $12 a case and these sell at what ever the customer will pay for them.

Champagne $100 a Case.

Champagnes go to the consumer at from $100 to $110 a case, depending upon what brand they get. The exports say there is a wholesale delivered in Chicago, differential of $3 a case on champagne. Thus the leggers pay their lowest price for Charles Heidsieck and dry Monopole; Mumm's is $2 more than these; Cigot and Pol Rogers are $2 more than Mumm's. And they sell it accordingly.

Of course, it is pointed out, if the bootlegger is dishonest, he may sell "magic whiskey" for any one of the McCoy's; or he may deliver champagne made from cider and charged water, and camouflaged like the real stuff.

However, all that may be, Chicago is said to be set for a roaring time.

ZOG'S DEALS SET UP NEW TINDER BOX IN BALKANS

Albanian King Deserts Serbs for Italy.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

TIRANA, Albania, Dec. 21.—The late of King Zog's checked and adventurous career reads better than any libretto and is practically the history of Albania for the last ten years.

After the Balkan war of 1912 Albania, which is made up of former Turkish provinces and vilayets peopled by two races called the Tosks and Ghegs, became independent, and the London council of ambassadors put the German Prince Weld on the throne. Prince

Weld fled from his kingdom when the European war broke out two years later and Albania reverted to a state of anarchy until 1919, with rival factions contending and intriguing for the power.

During the war the country was occupied both by Austrians and Italians.

From time to time, until finally, in 1919, there was an uprising in Valona,

the fortified seaport then occupied by the Italians. The Italians evacuated the port, the country again was proclaimed independent, and the government entrusted to four regents.

Zog Appears on Scene.

Here enters the then Ahmed Zogu,

a clever, patriotic, and powerful leader

from the north, and his political career begins.

Zogu—or Zog, as he is now known—opposed the designs of his cousin,

Beud Pasha Toptani, to become king, and for his loyalty was made minister of the interior by the regents in the government established in 1920. He was an able minister, worked out reforms and opened the Europeanization of his country. Interests conflicted, for Albania is 70 per cent Moslem and the other 30 per cent Catholic and Greek Orthodox.

Driven Out by Bishop.

Furthermore, Zog aroused the jealous chieftains of the north, who united to form a strong nationalist party, led by Bishop Fan Noli, another colorful character, who is an Orthodox priest, and former student of Harvard university. Noli got money from Albanians in the United States. In May, 1924, he organized a rebellion and drove out

Zog, who fled to Serbia, where he was well received in Belgrade, and where he plotted in his turn against the Orthodox priest who had become head of the Albanian government.

Fan Noli's regime soon flamed out and, with Serbian aid, Zog came back from Belgrade in December and drove out Fan Noli, who fled to Italy. Zog was welcomed with open arms, and three months later, in February, 1925,

the Albanian assembly proclaimed him president for seven years.

Immediately Zog saw his position

A. F. DU PONT FOUNDS SCHOOL WHERE BOYS WILL GET RELIGION

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 21.—A church boarding school for boys will be erected on a 250-acre site near Middletown, Del., through the gift of A.

Felix du Pont, it was announced tonight. The institution will represent an expenditure of $1,050,000, of which $500,000 will be the estimated cost of building and the remainder an endowment. The school will be under the direction of a corporation of which

Bishop Philip Cook of the Episcopal diocese of Delaware is a member.

Enrollment will not be restricted to boys of the Episcopal denomination.

The announced purpose of the school is to emphasize the religious element in education.

was precarious. Albania was a poverty-stricken country needing capital and technical services. Only in for-ign countries could these be obtained, and besides Zog needed strong outside support to consolidate his position against the jealous chieftains. He had his choice between Italy and Serbia. Serbia was too Balkan to be chosen as a tutor, and besides it might want to absorb Albania outright later on.

So, despite the fact that the Serbs aided him in driving out Fan Noli,

Zog chose the Italians as his allies.

Their aims in Albania would be purely strategic. He negotiated a treaty with

Premier Benito Mussolini, got a big

Italian loan, and later arranged with the Italians to form the Albanian

National bank, with capital of $10,- 000,000.

The Serbs dislike King Zog because he deserted them. This feeling was intensified last year when Zog and Mussolini turned their treaty into a direct pact of a military alliance.

The Albanian Economic Development company also was organized later, and Italy got a strong foothold on the other side of the Adriatic through its alliance, although Albania remains independent.

New Tinder Box of Balkans.

All this means commitments for Zog, but also a commitment for the Italians, whose preponderance is now such that they cannot let go. Italy not only by the treaty with Zog, but also by a previous understanding with the league of nations, is entrusted with the task of maintaining Albanian independence and restoring order in Zog's country any time a row arises.

Alongside of this is the Serbian alie-gence of any Italian interference.

Albania, accordingly, emerges as a sort of Balkan tinder box, but nature, not politics, appears to have destined it as a source of perennial dispute between the Italians and Jugo-Slavs, because of its topography and geographical position. Italy needs Albania because it makes control of the Adriatic sea certain. At the same time, the Serbs view the high Albanian mountains as a natural barrier against trouble arising for Jugo-Slavia from the Macedonian plains in the direction of Bulgaria and Greece, and consequently they are important to them.

King Zog, the Balkan fox, also knows the value of these mountains, and of his strong harbor at Valona,

and he is skillful and adept at the crafty politics of give and take. With several divisions of well trained soldiers, King Zog is certain to play his part on the Balkan stage any time

LAND TO FARMERS ONLY, MEXICAN BILL PROPOSES

New Law Aims to Re-build Estates.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Dec. 21.—

In the draft of the bill for reforming the agrarian law which President

Emilio Portes Gil has sent to the Mexican congress, attempts have been made to make the law specific and place in it such restrictions as will encourage the working of haciendas now lying idle by thousands throughout Mexico.

The bill restricts the class of people who may receive a donation of lands, either personally or as members of a community group.

The present law is so indefinite and loosely administered that politicians and political bosses, agrarian leaders and professional agrarian boosters are able to take advantage of it and make life miserable for the land owners, resulting in the destruction of most of the large haciendas, ranches and plantations, and decreasing agriculture by more than fifty per cent.

President Portes Gil's bill provides for the purchase and payment for lands taken for agrarian purposes in the future, and restricts the kind of lands which may be taken to those capable of cultivation. It excludes from right of land grants peons known to be working as such on haciendas or plantations, and prohibits the confiscation of farm and other buildings and of water supplies, upon retention of which depends the cultivation of lands.

Lands in cultivation cannot be taken without the owner being given from one to two years' notice.

INDIANA TO BUILD SECOND HIGHWAY ACROSS DUNES

Widening of Present Road Also Announced.

BY PUTNEY HAIGHT.

A new through road, paralleling the Dunes highway between Gary and Michigan City, will be placed under construction early next summer, and will be completed during the 1929 season. It has been announced by the Indiana state highway department. The same announcement provides that as soon as the new road, which will be at least 20 feet wide, is finished, the present Dunes highway will be widened to 40 feet.

This decision is hailed as the solution for one of the most acutely congested travel ways in the entire Chicago area and relief for a situation which has hampered the development of the south shore as a nearby resort and white-end playground.

Leaders Hear Announcement.

The announcement was made before a gathering of officials and representative leaders from a number of northwestern Indiana cities, who were in conference at Gary at the invitation of the Calumet township good roads committee. The project is in line with the recommendations of the Chicago Regional Planning association, and is considered one of the most important highway improvement enterprises in the area.

Completion of such a parallel highway will at least furnish relief for the heavy flow of traffic which leaves and enters Chicago from this direction. Robert Kingery, manager of the planning association, said, "It is in this area that the most serious traffic blockades have existed on congested days and where through traffic is greatly hampered at all times in summer. The existing road has constituted a bottleneck not only to Chicago local traffic but to interstate and transcontinental travel routed by way of Chicago."

Complete Widening by 1930.

The Hoosier officials further announced that it is proposed to begin the work of grading for the widening of the Dunes highway as soon as the parallel road is completed, extending this thoroughfare as a four lane road at least from Gary to Michigan City, and possibly to Grand Beach on the Monroe line. This project is under consideration for 1930 completion.

Another important project under consideration is the extension of a wide pavement north from U. S. highway, No. 41, near Schererville, along what is known as Forsyth avenue, into East Chicago. The Indiana highway department has recorded its willingness to build this added entrance way into Chicago if it is permitted to participate in a grade separation at the intersection of the right of way with the New York Central, Elgin, Joliet and Eastern, and Nickel Plate railways.

3 PARK SYSTEMS GET READY FOR MILLION SKATERS

Park commissioners are making preparations for a million skaters this winter, according to reports received yesterday from Harry S. Richards, William J. H. Schultz, and Edwin L. Wheeler, who have charge of skating arrangements in south, west, and Lincoln park systems, respectively.

There will be 24 places for skating in the south parks, an increase of 8 over last year, with a total area of 200 acres. West parks will have 13 skating places, totalling 110 acres, and Lincoln park will have 7 ponds. There will be four men stationed at each skating pond, which will also have warming places and stands for checking shoes and renting skates.

Most of these ponds are artificial and prepared especially for skaters by flooding low portions of land. Skaters last year totaled approximately 500,000.

Those whose work requires Steady Nerves are turning to Tareytons

"We smoke all we want, yet keep fit," men and women tell investigators

BIG STORY BREAKS—Here's Alice Hughes, reporter on a large New York newspaper, getting an assignment from her city editor. "A newspaper woman can't have 'nerves.' She has to meet every type of person—be ready to take instant advantage of a situation," says Miss Hughes. "My nerves have never said 'too many cigarettes' since I started smoking Tareytons." Surely that's sound advice for the average smoker. Stick to Tareytons if you want nerves in sound condition. Smoke all you want, but smoke nothing else.

STORM AT SEA TAKES NERVES OF STEEL—This remarkable picture snapped on bridge of R. M. S. Aquitania during stormy night. Second Officer Sorrell is on watch. Thousands of lives are in his safe-keeping. "On the sea you never know when you may need nerves of steel," he said, when asked what cigarette he smoked. "That's why I always recommend Tareytons for the man or woman who smokes a lot, as I do."

RISKS LIFE UNDER SEA—Above picture shows H. Siemer, crack diver, getting ready to explore submerged wreck under sea. A perilous job, if there ever was one. When asked about cigarettes recently, he answered, "What brand of cigarettes do I smoke? Say... have you ever found a man on a high-tension job like this that didn't smoke Tareytons? I smoke two packs a day... and my nerves are always in A1 condition." No wonder thousands of busy, active people everywhere, now follow this sane advice.

WRITES "BEST-SELLER" NOVEL—Mary Granger is shown here writing the last chapter of her new book "Wife to Pilate." It took a lot of research and long hard hours of writing. When asked about cigarettes Miss Granger said enthusiastically... "Why, I get my best ideas while smoking. Cigarettes always inspire me. But I'm careful to choose the brand that doesn't get my nerves. I stick to Tareytons... they seem to keep me in fit condition."

ACE AFTER SPEED RECORD—William Ulbrich of Mineola, L. I., is a crack speed flyer with many hours in the air to his credit. Asked why he smoked Tareytons, Ulbrich said, "That's easy. A flyer has to have steady nerves. I smoke nothing but Tareytons... because they keep me in sound flying condition. I've noticed that most of the pilots do."

SALES doubled in one month... trebled in three. All records shattered... day after day. A 237% increase! Surely fine flavor alone couldn't account for it.

Go find out, we told investigators. Check up on Tareyton smokers... find out why so many men and women prefer this brand.

They went to large cities—to small towns. Talked to thousands in crowded stores. Questioned—reported. Got the facts.

This was the cigarette of busy people. Tareyton smokers did work that called for steady nerves.

A famous trial lawyer had smoked Tareytons for six years. Need of steady nerves his reason.

A deep sea diver working under the most perilous conditions for Tareytons never increased his nervous tension.

A trained nurse said, "They don't make me jumpy."

Everywhere they had found the same reason. Steady nerves. "You can smoke all you want." "They never make you nervous."

Speed... Hurry-up... this lightning pace of modern life! That's the reason for Tareytons' quick-gaining popularity. People say they can smoke one and two packs a day—and still keep nerves fit for exacting jobs.

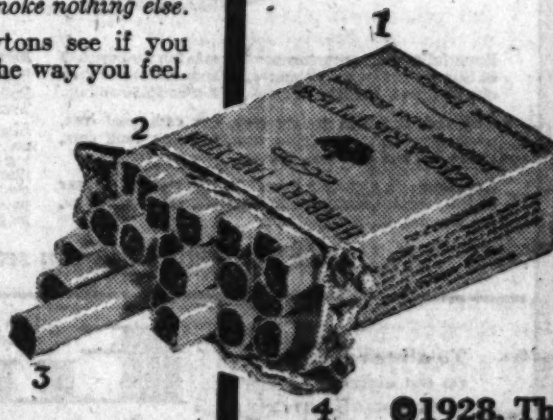

Make a simple one-week test yourself.

Just switch to Tareytons for 7 days. Smoke as many as you want... but smoke nothing else.

And after a week of Tareytons see if you don't notice the difference in the way you feel.

1. Humidor Package. 2. Heavy Foil. 3. Quality Tobaccos. 4. Sealed Perforated Top. That's why there's no dryness... no crushing. The extra heavy foil used in Tareyton's famous humidor package assures you a fresh full-flavored smoke down to the last cigarette.

FIND TEACHER BRUTALLY SLAIN IN HER COTTAGE

Killer Sets Fire to Residence After Crime.

Carmel, Ill., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The nearly decapitated body of Miss Anna Preher, about 45 years old, a grade school teacher and secretary-treasurer of the White County Teachers' Institute, was found in her home today. An effort had been made to burn the house by setting fire to a pile of bed clothing in one of the rooms.

The body was found by Mrs. Maude Chaffant, city superintendent of schools, who went to Miss Preher's home to find out why she was absent from the teachers' institute. The body lay on the floor in a bedroom and near by lay a pile of charred bed clothing. A hole about three feet square had been burned in the floor before the fire extinguished itself.

Find Evidence of Struggle.

Part of the slain teacher's clothing had been torn from her body, and her neck had been cut nearly through. About the room were evidences of a struggle. A charred clock was found in the stove, with its hands stopped at twelve minutes past 6 o'clock. Miss Preher was last seen about 6 or 6:30 o'clock last night.

Investigation revealed the slayer had used a wash basin, after cutting the teacher's throat. Bloody fingerprints were found on a dresser scarf and on some lattice work on the outside of the house. Sheriff Jesse Crismon announced a fingerprint expert would be summoned.

Miss Preher lived alone in her four room cottage near the business district. Her only relative here was a sister, from whom she was reported to have been estranged. The teacher was prominent in civic and church as well as educational circles.

Question Another Teacher.

Tonight authorities were questioning Isaac Austin, another school teacher, with whom Miss Preher was known to have argued yesterday. Austin lives in the country, and officers went to his home to question him. They refused to reveal anything he learned. Austin was a former neighbor of Miss Preher and they frequently argued, other neighbors said. Miss Preher's sister also was questioned by authorities who said afterward they were convinced she could shed no light on the slaying.

Sheriff Jesse Crismon announced he had summoned a fingerprint expert from St. Louis who is expected to arrive early tomorrow.

POLICEMEN GIVE BLOOD TO SAVE LIFE OF COMRADE

If Policeman Charles Sherlock, 25 years old, wins his battle against death in the Lutheran Memorial hospital he will have several strong comrades of the police force to thank for his deliverance.

Five months ago Policeman Sherlock was seriously injured in an automobile accident. He was taken to the hospital, where he remained for several weeks. A short time ago he returned to his post, but on Tuesday he developed internal hemorrhages and was rushed back to the hospital.

When physicians declared that Sherlock might not live unless blood was offered for transfusions, twenty or more comrades of the force responded at once. The blood of only four, however, was found satisfactory.

The first to give blood was Policeman Walter Casey, who had been Sherlock's partner for five years on a detective watch at North Robey street station. Policeman Edward Mullenhall, also of North Robey street station, was the second. Blood will probably be taken from Sgt. F. J. Costello and Walter Hogan today.

Sherlock, with his wife and two children, lives at 820 Oconto street, Edison Park.

Peggy Joyce Wants Law to Run Forger to His Lair

New York, Dec. 21.—(Special).—Peggy Joyce of the many millionaires today appealed to a New York grand jury for prompt justice against a hotel clerk who, she charged, hid her dirt in a financial war. She invoked the law against an unnamed individual whom she accuses of having forged her name to a series of checks totaling nearly $1,000.

MILK DEALER FAVORS PRICE ARBITRATION BY IMPARTIAL ECONOMIST

Arbitration of milk prices is favored by Joseph Skrzypcynski, a small dealer, who testified before the fact-finding group of the Chicago milk marketing committee at the Morrison hotel yesterday. As a representative of the Lamont dairy, he said that he was willing to have the entire milk question put in the hands of an impartial economist to decide upon the price paid to farmers and the price paid by city consumers.

Mr. Skrzypcynski said that despite the fact that milk prices are about the same as they were a few years ago, the small dealer's profit is less, due to increased operating costs.

Dr. Arnold H. Kegel, commissioner of health, told the committee that the health department's interest in the milk question is only from the sanitation point of view. Testimony given by both the commissioner and Dr. Henry C. Becker showed that Chicago has one of the most wholesome supplies of milk in the country.

CZARIST COLONEL, REWED, FINDS HIS LOST WIFE HERE

Seeks Annulment of Second Marriage.

Peter N. Novitsky, former colonel in the Russian imperial army, after 14 years has found his wife, Barbara, living in Chicago with friends. Six years ago, upon receiving information that she had been killed in the Bolshevik revolution, Novitsky was remarried. So yesterday, reunited with his first wife, he filed a bill in the superior court to annul his marriage to Zonaida Pavlanova Novitsky.

In the summer of 1914, in Vladivostok, Siberian seaport, Peter kissed his wife and two children goodbye as he entrained with his regiment for the German front. He led his command during the Russian offensives of the first year of the war and was severely wounded.

Escapes from Red Troops.

In March, 1917, Novitsky was recuperating in a hospital in St. Petersburg when the Reds took the city. Despite his wounds, he donned a disguise and fled. After months he reached Vladivostok. His family was gone. He was told that many of the aristocrats had been killed, while others had left the city. He joined the White army and held a command until 1920.

Later, in Constantinople, in a colony of Russian refugees, Novitsky met his sister-in-law and was told that his wife had been killed by the Reds. There he also met Zonaida, another refugee. They were married in December of 1922.

Brings Bride to America.

Zonaida, even at the time of her wedding, feared the fate that is now hers. It was said. To ease her mind, Novitsky, in January of 1923, went to a synod of the Russian Orthodox church in Yugoslavia and obtained an ecclesiastical decree validating his second marriage. Then he took his bride to New York.

In New York Novitsky heard rumors from other refugees that his family had escaped the Red massacre. He renewed his search. A few weeks ago his daughter, Mrs. Barbara N. Reiner, 32 years old, read his advertisement in a Russian newspaper and wrote to him. He left Zonaida in New York and came to Chicago.

Reunited with Family.

Here the former colonel was greeted by his wife, his daughter, and his son, Peter Novitsky Jr., 27 years old. They told him of their flight to Japan at the outbreak of the revolution. They had remained in the Orient for several years, they said, not wishing to go too far from their home in hopes he would find them. Then they gave him up for dead and came to America. Novitsky tells the whole story in his bill for an annulment. He makes the plea that his heart is with the woman to whom he was married in 1920, the mother of his two children. He further sets up ecclesiastical grounds for annulling his marriage with Zonaida. He points out that the decree of the Russian Orthodox church has no standing in the civil courts of America and also that he was not remarried to Zonaida after obtaining this church decree.

FOUND DEAD WITH GAS ON. Sgt. 25-year-old Des Plaines was found dead yesterday in a gas filled room at 1834 West Grand avenue. Circumstances indicated that he had committed suicide, but the police were unable to learn the motive.

HAM AND EGGS $5 IN NEW YORK PRICE WHOOPEE

Everything Is Far Beyond
Average Man's Purse.

BY TOM PETTEY.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
New York, Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Prosperity—Wall street style—in New York is traveling the well paved "vicarious circle." Countless patrons of the fine art of playing the stock market are discovering that their profits are homecoming and today they are getting the seeds of their pains sown. Their come easy, go easy cash is not going as far as it should.

While these poor rich fellows are harking back to the days of 1920 to revive the cry of the "high cost of living," the millions who never took a flyer in Wall street are not exactly doing their suffering in silence.

The whole trouble is that it takes a heap of winnings to keep pace with the rising cost of everything. Living and luxury prices, which shot skyward with the stock market issues, have not followed the stocks back to earth.

Consequently, that widely advertised symbol of city life, "the ordinary man," is sweating like a traffic cop right now, for virtually all the little luxuries of life have been lifted beyond his purse, and he blames the stock market.

Subway All He Can Afford.
The hotel dining rooms, theaters, tailors and specialty shops are not for him. He has to walk up to his home and to buy his clothes ready made, and he has to take his recreation in a subway ride.

A peek at the menu cards in the milk sticking hotels reveals a few printed facts that would convince even a man with a bundle of General Motors stock in his safety box that eating is not always a pleasure. There is an underlying reason for the crack-and-milk luncheon, and it isn't altogether a matter of diet.

Such a plebeian dish as lamb stew comes to $2.80 a portion, and a breakfast of bacon and eggs demolishes a five dollar bill. A Madison avenue dining room warns its patrons that "no order amounting to less than $3 will be served." It is considerably easier for two people to spend $10 for a luncheon than it is for her to get by any cheaper.

Prosperity also has spread her golden wings over the night clubs and the cover charges have grown from $1 to as high as $4 and $5, with everything else, from the head waiter's favorite dish to ham sandwiches, in proportion. The average New Yorker can afford to buy his way into one of these places about as often as he can afford a trip to Europe, and that is somewhat less than once in a lifetime.

Wall street's so-called easy money, which some often call "rainbow gold," also is blamed for the prohibitive tariff put on theater going. The box of five prices ranging up to $6.50 a seat long ago made playing a small annual instead of weekly event for the average man, and now the speculators have found the prices can be doubled and sometimes trebled and still there is a sucker for every seat.

Movies Follow Suit.

Even the movie houses are jacking up the prices, and when the big push comes on Saturday and Sunday nights they tack on a few dimes more. The cinema shops are the last recreational refuge of the ordinary man, and if he ever is pushed out he probably will start an anti-prosperity demonstration that hasn't been matched in New York since the civil war draft riots.

A half dozen tailor shops, picked at random from the financial district to the Fifth street, were visited today. In each shop it was admitted that prices were from 10 to 25 per cent higher than two years ago. The customers are willing to pay more, was the only explanation, and the tailors have discontinued their cheaper lines. They start at $100 now. There has been no rise in the price of woolsens and the wage scale has changed but slightly. They merely are cashing in on prosperity.

Apartment rents, once the walk-up and tenement classes are passed, grow dearer as New York grows richer on paper. There apparently is no limit.

PREYS ON POOR 40 YEARS; SENT UP 48 MONTHS

Wall Street Editor Uses
Mails to Defraud.

New York, Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Characterized as one who for almost 40 years has been preying on the poor and the easily led, George Graham Rice was sentenced today to serve four years in Atlanta penitentiary and to pay a fine of $5,000.

Operation of an additional sentence of five years imprisonment, to begin at the expiration of the first, was suspended during good behavior for the five year period.

Walter K. Yorton, president of the Idaho Copper corporation, who was tried with Rice for using the mails to defraud in the sale of stock in the copper company, was sentenced to serve nine months in Westchester county penitentiary and like Rice got an additional good behavior suspension on a five year sentence.

The Wall Street Iconoclast, a magazine published by Rice to boost stocks one count and their years on each of four other counts, but the terms were permitted to run concurrently so that four years would dispose of them all. Yorton was sentenced to serve nine months on each of five counts, the terms to run concurrently. The suspended five year term for each was imposed on two additional counts.

United States Attorney Charles T. Tule outlined Rice's criminal career, beginning with his first imprisonment at the age of 20 in 1870. He told of his building up a fortune on the "financial disabilities" of the poor and weak. The Wall Street Iconoclast, he said, issued as many as 600,000 copies weekly although its paid subscribers were only 15,000 and had been used for illegal purposes.

LEADERS TO LET FARM BILL WAIT TILL EXTRA TERM

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Despite a declaration by Secretary of Agriculture William M. Jardine favoring farm relief legislation at this session, congressional leaders still were of the opinion today that nothing would be accomplished until the new congress convenes.

Secretary Jardine's views were made known in a letter to Senator Charles L. McNary (Rep., Ore.), chairman of the senate committee on agriculture. Mr. Jardine approved the McNary bill, which is based on the program favored by President Coolidge and by President Elect Herbert Hoover.

While many members of congress would be glad to avoid a special session, those who speak for the leading farm groups, such as the American Farm Bureau federation, prefer that the enactment of legislation should be postponed until Mr. Hoover takes office.

ANTI-KLAN SUIT FILED IN COURT AT NOBLESVILLE

Noblesville, Ind., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—The case of the state of Indiana against the Knights of Ku Klux Klan started by Attorney General Gilliam in Marion county to cancel the organization's certificate in the state and seeking the appointment of a receiver, was filed in the Circuit court in Noblesville this afternoon, having been sent here on a change of venue from Indianapolis.

Judge Fred E. Hines announced that no steps would be taken in the case until after Jan. 14, the date for the opening of the new term of court. He said his calendar for the remainder of the present term was full.

The litigation seeks to dissolve the Klan in this state on the grounds that it does not have the proper reverence for the stars and stripes, and is alleged to be a nonpolitical organization when the primary purpose of it is really profit and political prestige.

They called it "Bird of Paradise"

when the turkey was stuffed with Mickelberry's Old Farm Sausage

What a great day was Christmas down on the old Mickelberry plantation in good old Georgia times!

The big event of the occasion, of course, took place at dinner when old Mose strutted into the great dining hall proudly bearing the turkey which had been specially fattened for the feast.

But the turkey had an "inner" secret—the irresistible stuffing of wonderful sausage made by Grandmother Mickelberry herself after her own special recipe. It was sometimes a question whether the turkey was eaten for its dressing, or the dressing for the turkey. No wonder they called it "Bird of Paradise."

She alone knew

The day had already started off with a sausage breakfast, when, as always, Grandmother Mickelberry made the sausage herself. For who else knew how so artfully to blend choice morsels of sweet young pork with a secret Southern seasoning that made her sausage the envy of the countryside?

Guests ate heartily, for these sausages, mild yet restful, not only tempted appetite, but also encouraged digestion, so that by the time the great dinner was served there was room for more.

The same today

You can have such sausages as these today by merely asking for Mickelberry's at your dealer's. Bynomeans let Christmas go by without seeing that the bird is plentifully dressed with this feast-crowning delight. Simply follow the recipe given here.

Also be sure to start the day with a breakfast of Mickelberry sausages. Their wonderful seasoning will enable digestion to keep step with appetite.

Serve often

Serve Mickelberry's little farm sausages often—at any mealtime—any day of the week. They are especially good for young folk or others with delicate appetites. You are always sure to be right when you serve Mickelberry's.

Made and sold fresh daily in their protecting green-and-yellow package. Three styles—links, patties, meat. At dealers everywhere.

Home Kitchens! May They Long Serve Us All!

They're Almost 'Fount of Every Blessing.'

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Home for home kitchens. I love 'em—good ones, and they cannot be too good. In this consistent in one who has a literary training and one who has all things of the mind and spirit? Yes, verily. To me physical comfort—comfort from kitchen sources—far from being ignoble, or just less noble than the things denominated joys, are great predisposing sources of intellectual and spiritual experience, greater than most people dream of in their philosophies.

I believe that no woman who fully understands the resources of a kitchen, its indispensable facilities, what a resource it is, isolation from its true estate. And men? Note how they have but just now risen in editorial and other outlets to defend this altar of the home. To a man a good kitchen gives diversion, savor, hopes—not to all, but to most. For men, women and, particularly for children, a happily functioning kitchen is the nucleus of home.

Home Comforts.

First, a satisfactory home kitchen is a prerequisite to plain physical family comfort and family privacy. And these plain home comforts are the well-invested capital whose interest is buoyancy of spirit, courage, and a multitude of advantageous psychological influences which may and do come from a competent kitchen. There is as ever homely side to the heart of man a kitchen appeals to. Each room in a home has a function, but none more positive and various than the kitchen. It is the health making room, and do we have to look far to find convincing and many evidences to health?

Almost anybody can believe, without trying, that a perfectly functioning kitchen is the stable social foundation for a happy and frictionless home, a home from which issues the most of our life's joys. It is the center of activities requiring high health and capacity. Citizens of a real republic of fine kitchens will waste no energy of their own, nor those of other people, by those endless temporary handicaps to which these people are subject who have not a good kitchen to set them on their way each and every day.

The Food Room.

Upon food, properly prepared in the food room, depends every human activity, in the most basic fashion, from mere breathing, and similarly necessary physiological acts, to the most personal, industrial, social, national. The battles of great wars have been lost because the leader had a poor breakfast, and modern business and political battles are often lost for what seems obscure reasons only because the science and art of nourishment have been given little or no attention by these powers.

The kitchen is not a servile room, although thousands of people have had this conception of it. It is a room near the dining room, too intimately inseparable from it, to allow any but those of high hearts and independent spirits to really rule there. It is that kitchen which makes the atmosphere of the dining room where social graces, for the smoothing out of human relations, are so largely bred. It is proverbial that a man's table manners, most surely betray whether he is really gentle or crude. Indeed, do not the loveliest and most telling social evidence be their happiest and most frequent exercise in the presence of food? No other form of entertainment is more generally welcome than nice refreshments—if the kitchen has played its best possible return. The kitchen, instead of being one of the most uncivilized of rooms—barren, dull, unlovely in every way—should be alive with significance and charm with the appointments that pertain to cultivated and intelligent living. By barren we do not mean bare, because the latter quality may be lovely in its way.

To put this another way: A kitchen of the right sort, or right going, is an enormously civilizing institution. Many a needed reform would come inevitably if the national kitchen standard was raised.

The Kitchen Summarized.

Artistic and musical people quite universally know what a kitchen is and how to behave in it. A decade ago one of the great women pianists had the following reverie as she sat in her kitchen: "Here from all the ends of the earth are gathered the elements which give us life and strength and health. These elements are prepared in a way which represent an immense amount of scientific research. They also represent the development of great industries, the backbone of national prosperity. Here are fruits from all the great fields of the world, or perhaps even from Australia or South America. Rice and honey in a corner of the cupboard remind me of my own south; and various meats suggest visions of great ranches. There is no end to the appeal to the imagination when one begins to think about the contents of a kitchen."

If There Were No Kitchens.

A FESTIVE HOLIDAY SETTING

A miniature Santa Claus, with bushy white whiskers and a cardboard sleigh full of toys, looks as though he had driven his prancing china reindeer onto this Christmas table on purpose to make a festive centerpiece for the Christmas dinner table. A grey crepe paper tablecloth with a holly, bells and candles design, and the handsome artificial wreath tied above the table with silver and scarlet ribbons also adds festiveness to the setting.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Dried Apricot Confection.

We are trying right here to give four recipes and to make them distinct, while blending them, which is not so easy. First we cook the dried apricots, remembering that the juice of soaked dried apricots may be used as orange juice and prune juice are as a morning tonic, cooking the fruit afterwards for a compote. Our first recipe is that for cooking the apricots, slicing them, and then making a dried apricot marmalade or jam. Then we want to give directions for combining a given portion of this marmalade of jam with a syrup containing just as much sugar and water as there is marmalade or jam.

The confection thus made from the jam or marmalade can be used as a cake glaze or can be made up into many forms of bonbon-like candies. First, pick over one pound of dried apricots, which are often quite perfect, without any dark or black portions to be rejected. Rinse the fruit with cold water, add a different cold water, and let stand for five minutes.

Rub each piece clean from this water, drain, and put into an earthen dish. To this washed fruit add two cups of cold water and let stand overnight. In the morning cook the apricots in the water in which they soaked for one-half hour, or until the skins are tender enough to sieve. It is real work to sieve this fruit entirely, but it is worth while.

Add to each cup of the puree obtained by the sieving three-fourths of a cup of sugar. Stir these two well together and cook to a jam stage, or until a little between the thumb and forefinger will be sticky and stretchy, but do not overcook and make dark. Now, to experiment with the confection, make a syrup with one-half cup of water and one-half cup of sugar and add to it one-half cup of the marmalade or jam. Cook this to 220 or to a jelly stage, pour it out in a thin layer, then, when it has set, cut in thin squares to roll in confectioner's sugar, or manipulate as you choose in a great number of ways. A piece of it may be used to stick together two walnut meats, and such bits may be covered with a white fondant. It is an excellent confection just rolled in the sugar.

If the home kitchen should disappear from off the earth—as it never will while the disposition and heart of man are what they are—the revolution would be inconceivably great. There is a reaction against many a type of kitchen, or those of unusual types, whether of closest size or capacity, but not against the kitchen generic, the kitchen that is a lure to work and to the usefulness of it. It arranged, awkward, depressing kitchen workshops are a mistake and even a sin. But even a kitchen of closest size can be a sufficient, competent, potent.

"Painful domestic arrangements" belonged to cruel times, true dark ages, but today, and for those of our look, foresight, ambition, unselfishness, desire to know the best and be part of it, the home kitchen may rank with any workshop of the immortal gods. The world do move, but I believe it is toward the kitchen and not away from it. And I have been rather identified with the kitchens of a great territory for almost nineteen years now, and a confident of them.

The Christmas Table Must Be Gay and Jolly

Jack Horner Pie Furnishes Lots of Merriment.

BY SALLY LUNN.

The holiday spirit is at its most festive pitch when it comes time on Christmas day to sit down to the festive feast. The guests have all been opened, the thank-yous said, the story guests that you have included in your family dinner party have been welcomed and made to feel at home, and even if Junior has whacked the top of his new electric train, or Sally Ann has broken the head of her new doll, the spirit of good will and cheer prevails, so the Christmas table must be decorated with festive trimmings to harmonize with the gay spirit of those who are to sit around it.

If you have been the forerunner of the housewife that the do your Christmas shopping early propagandists have been urging you to be for the last few years, you will have completed the frantic gift hunt by now, and can turn your thoughts and a little time to arranging some extra special decoration for your Christmas table.

Centerpiece is the thing. You won't want to have an elaborate lot of trimmings, probably, because if you have a honey sort of meal, rather than a carousing turkey or the goose, and you know what a lot of room he always takes up. But the center piece can be as spry as you care to make it. You can use the traditional Christmas symbols, Christmas trees, bells, wreaths, or Santa Claus, in a variety of effective ways.

One hostess of my acquaintance delighted her family and guests, a group composed of all ages, by having a sort of Jack Horner pie arranged for the guests which were tied with long red ribbons extending to each place. Huge crepe paper Santa Clauses, pasted on cardboard, flanked the sides of the table, with cotton stuffed in and about the box and sprinkled with artificial mica snow. Red candles, of course, in silver candlesticks, and with little bunches of holly, completed the setting.

Small Trees Are Pretty. Small Christmas trees, trimmed with silver foil icicles, tinsel, cotton or tiny ornaments are always pretty, and the addition of little lights, either of various colors, two colors such as red and white, blue and white, or all of one color, if your home electrician is an ingenious one, makes an enchanting picture.

If you want to add a modern note to the traditional character of your table, you can plant the trees, either artificial or real ones, in the small pottery jars with ragged edges that are so popular now for small cacti and house plants. Candles in cream or ivory white, red, or green are, of course, the appropriate lighted ones for the Christmas festive dinner. Nut cups in red crepe paper, place cards and snappers are more suitable for the friendly informality of the Christmas dinner than for more formal occasions.

"Oscar of Waldorf," Famous Chef, to Go Back to the Soil

New York, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Oscar Teichgraber, more familiarly known as "Oscar of the Waldorf," will go back to the soil when the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, scene of his labors as maître d'hôtel and his friendships with notables of the world for many years, begins to crumble beneath the wrecking sleds.

Oscar opened the Waldorf-Astoria, he says, and soon he will close it. Now 63 years old, he intends to retire to his 1,000 acre farm at New Paltz, upstate, and live there planting trees. He shall not be idle for he says "I never rest."

Thirty-three years ago Oscar bought the farm on the Wallkill river, "It's just like Switzerland," Oscar says; and that means just like home. "People all over the United States and Europe and South America," Oscar mourns, "are going to have a sore spot in their hearts and perhaps a lump in their throats when they hear the Waldorf-Astoria has been sold. Naturally, I feel bad about it. New York—well, New York just won't be the same without it. I feel sorry for Fifth avenue."

Give the Children Toys That Can Be Washed

When Santa Claus climbs over the radiator this Christmas, what toys will he leave for the children? Nowhere there are so many fascinating varieties of playthings that even old St. Nick must become confused as to what will please them most. Well, then, what are the factors to be considered before you mail your order to the north pole?

You are probably familiar with your children's tastes in blocks, balls, engines, dolls and picture books, so you will have no trouble in selecting gifts that are suitable and interesting enough to hold their attention. But there is still another important consideration that many of the most conscientious parents overlook. Are the toys you choose for your children safe? Few people stop to consider that danger may lurk on the surface of a rattle or the gown of a flaxen haired doll. These and many other apparently innocent objects which your children and your neighbor's children handle with sticky fingers and drop carelessly on the floor may harbor a dangerous assortment of disease-producing germs. Then, when the child puts a germ infested finger in his mouth or bites on the toy, so many young children do, the results may be serious.

The solution to the problem lies in the new washable toys which may be dipped into a bowl of soap suds and cleaned as often as necessary. They are just as attractive as the old fashioned variety and cannot fail to win the approval of the most fastidious parents. One group of woolly animals recently seen was made of genuine skins. The proud owner of such a toy could comb its hair after it had been washed just as he would his pet dog. These are the miniature wash-baths, clotheslines, and other laundry facilities which would induce any little girl to keep her doll's wardrobe spic and span.

Holiday Meal Cheaper This Year Than Last

Turkeys Reported to Be Lower in Price.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Christmas turkey dinners served in the home will cost several cents less this year than last. The holiday dinner on Tuesday will cost even less than the Thanksgiving meal.

Turkey, the main item in the meal, is lower than it was last year. Retailers are offering Christmas turkeys at from 7 to 10 cents a pound less than the prices charged at Thanksgiving time. Some of the finest birds in the retailer's coolers can be bought at from 40 to 45 cents a pound, while at Thanksgiving time they sold at 50 cents or more a pound. No. 1 turkeys can be bought at an average price of approximately 43 cents a pound.

Below is a Christmas menu that will cost 65 cents less than the same dinner totaled at Thanksgiving. The dinner is for eight persons and totals $5.54, compared with $6.09 at Thanksgiving time. The menu follows:
Oysters (small, for cocktail), 1 doz., .20
Turkey, 8 lbs., at 43c a lb., 3.44
White potatoes, 3 lbs., .05
Sweet potatoes, 3 lbs., .05
Cranberries, 1 qt., .10
Olives, 1 bunch, .10
Mushrooms (for pie), .10
Butter, 1 lb., .24
Bread, .10
Total, $5.54

Harrison F. Jones, secretary, National Turkey and Egg association, says a fine grade of turkeys have been willing in from Idaho, Oklahoma, Texas, Minnesota, Montana, Utah, Wyoming and the Dakotas during the last few days. The superior quality of birds this year is due to the fact that growers had plenty of good feed and range for the turkeys along with an abundance of sunshine. Recent cool weather has played a part. The turkeys have made a rapid growth which means tender, juicy meat of both the white and dark varieties.

Heavier Than Before.

From a study of the birds coming to Chicago Mr. Jones finds that they are running somewhat heavier than heretofore. No. 1 young toms are averaging about twelve pounds each. His summary of the market shows that wholesale prices of turkeys are the lowest they have been since 1923. They have been wholesaling at from 3 to 10 cents cheaper than at Thanksgiving time, depending upon the size and quality of the birds.

Dressed birds at country shipping points during the Christmas holiday market have been from 48 to 45 cents a pound in the southwestern parts of the country. Up in the northwestern turkey raising sections the price has been a little higher, approximately 50 to 57 cents a pound for high quality.

It just wouldn't be Christmas time without them—these traditional foodstuffs every body likes so well! Tempting mince meat and piping hot plum pudding. Here are some ways of serving them that will add a sprightly novelty to their old-fashioned charm.

A brand new kind of cookies—made with mince meat! Light, buttery, little triangles and half-moons sparkle with tangy mince meat flavor. A welcome variation from the usual "pie and tart" serving of mince meat.

A plum pudding that is like no other you have ever tasted. All its golden richness made doubly enticing by contrast with the smooth mildness of a unique sauce. Delicate, creamy Apricot Custard Sauce. It fits perfectly into your holiday scheme of good things to eat. The simple recipes below tell you how to make them.

And about the mince meat and pudding themselves. For one of the finest appetite thrills of the season, use Libby's. From all over the world come ingredients for these two famous delicacies, Libby's Mince Meat and Libby's Plum Pudding. The toothsome nuggets of citron are from Greece, the currants from Valencia, the plum raisins from California, the subtly blended spices from the Far East. And the recipes are Libby's own. Long ago worked out and perfected by master chefs. Serve these savory foods in the ways described here.

Helpful Hints

Many toys are made for adults, not for children. Children need toys which they themselves can manipulate.

To make an inviting Christmas box, include small jars of marmalade made of cranberry or pineapple and apple.

A kitchen cabinet, a serving table, wheel tray, a fireless cooker, a dish drainer, a folding ironing board—these are some of the useful Christmas gifts welcome to any homemaker which may be made at home at small expense.

Too many Christmas toys are as bad for the child as too many cooks for the broth.

To freshen old or wilted vegetables, soak them in cold water for two or three hours before cooking them.

Dip the measuring cup in cold water before measuring molasses or thick syrup. The syrup will pour much more easily.

Woolen garments should be dried in a moderate temperature to avoid freezing, which will shrink them.

The refrigerator is cooled when ice melts. Therefore ice should never be covered with paper.

birds. To these prices is added about 4 cents a pound for packages, refrigeration, transportation, and regrading, and from 1 to 2 cents a pound for the wholesale merchant's commission, according to Mr. Jones.

Growers Get One-Half. Growers get about one-half the price paid by city consumers for turkeys. In Texas, during the week ending Dec. 15, the government reports that live turkeys brought the growers from 20 to 23 cents a pound for No. 1 young toms, most of them selling at 22 cents a pound; 15 to 20 cents for hens, and mostly 15 cents for old toms.

An unusually fine quality of birds are coming in from the northwest turkey raising sections, where live turkey prices have been a little higher.

Antoinette Tells How to Care for Permanent Wave

Some women have no after effects from a permanent wave, unless those of the pleasant awareness that they're ready on a moment's notice for a last minute invitation. Others need a special program of after care. And upon the faithfulness with which this course is pursued depends the success of your permanent.

For excessively oily hair the permanent is a godsend. For a time, at least, after the operation there is succor from the discomforts of a too active oily scalp. But even under these circumstances, depending upon the efficiency of the permanent wave operator and the best used during the process of waving, there may occur such discomforts as are known to less oily haired persons. It is doubtful, however, if one's hair ever becomes so brittle as that of her opposite after an expert treatment.

I speak of inefficiency of operators because it is reasonable to believe that in a profession where such a comparatively short training period is demanded, inexperience, or shall we say experimental, work is done. Also, another reason is that the competition in this kind of work has become so keen of recent years and months that the price cutting barely permits the highest grade work.

As with dyeing, I certainly believe

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address: Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune, Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Humiliating

The most embarrassing moment in my life occurred in history class at college. I come from Europe and do not speak English clearly. The professor was lecturing upon the union of my country with another. According to my personal knowledge he had a wrong conception. I disagreed. He said, "Well, then, you come up here and tell us all about it." Too eagerly I accepted. Enthusiastically I began. In my broken English my ideas fell flat. I could not put them over. I used up precious time. The class ceased to listen. Some one laughed. I stopped, saying, "This is the first time I ever made a fool of myself."

The professor answered, innocently enough, "Oh, no one ever does that. You merely proved it."

Taking a Beauty Treatment.

Since I was all alone in the office and knowing the boss would be away for three or four hours, I decided to try out a new beauty clay that was recommended to me. I had just completed my task and was waiting for it to dry, when in walked my boss. He looked at me and at first was struck dumb, but after a few seconds he just laughed and asked me if I could see well enough to get certain papers out of the files that he had forgotten. After he had left I quickly wiped off the clay and from henceforth and forever I'm off!!

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY

G. L.: APPLY TO THE SKIN each night a cloth wrung out in warm water. Allow it to remain on several minutes. This releases the eye muscles from their set position. In the morning repeat, using cold water instead of warm. You will note an improvement in your eyes in less than a month's time.

L. T.: THE LINES RUNNING from the nose to the mouth corners are known as parenthesis lines. They are not uncommon. Massage nightly with a good cold cream on the finger tips, working from the mouth corners outward and upward toward the cheek bones.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

The radio audience was permitted to hear and enjoy Handel's "Messiah" sung by the combined choir of the First Congregational church, Ashland avenue and Washington boulevard, through WLS, 8:30 to 10:15 last night. It has been some time since we have heard a full broadcast of this great oratorio, without which no Christmas is complete.

On the side of the virtues were excellent singing by the chorus, which was under the direction of Mr. George L. Tenney, organist and accompanist. The choir, consisting of men, women and children, was made up of the best voices of the city. The performance was a most successful one, and the oratorio was heard by a large number of people.

Three Clever Hats Along New Lines by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondent.]—Well, we are still brow-beaten by our hats. In spite of all promises of reform these berets and turbans and whatnot continue to come well down over the brows. Aside from that, a general habit they are subject to no routine. In fact, almost every shape seems to have some claim to smartness. Among the best of our latest offerings is such a hat as Reboux shows us here at the top of the page. This model is one of the black felt which is contrasted with a white band. It is the popular choice of the world's most fashionable women. It describes an off-the-face movement accompanied by an emphatic dip of the turn back brim at the side. Black grosgrain ribbon accented by an ornament of brilliant supplies the trimming. Below is a smart turban of black satin trimmed on one side with a tremendous bow of self material which is contrasted with a Dutch frill effect on the other side. An excellent example of the asymmetric idea as it pertains to millinery. For southern resort wear we find three types of hats most emphasized. One is the poke-shaped cloche, another is the beret and a third is the good old-fashioned broad-brimmed creation. Certainly the last is the most fashionable as ever. Here we show it interpreted in evening terms. The third of our models is, in fact, of silver metal lace, and particularly charming are the jabot draperies at the sides.

Wants a Divorce Just to Hear Him Do the Proposing

BY DORIS BLAKE. You can understand a woman becoming so peevish with a husband who drags her round the room by the hair of her head as to call up a lawyer and inquire about the price of a divorce. You can sympathize with the owner of a pair of black eyes if she uses them to convince a judge that home "ain't no dovecot" and she'd like to move out. But what in the year of seven divorces to every wedding march do you make of a woman who wants to get her freedom as her husband's right to ask her to marry him and right the proposal privileges she appears to have herself some years ago? At least, you must give the woman credit for originality. You compliers of divorce cases might add that one to your collection. It deserves a paragraph to itself. "Poor John" loves the ornery creature. He would so crumbly about her when she proposed to him first. He refused. She said, "All right, then our friendship comes to an end." That decided John. She was too good a woman to let get away, so he took back the refusal and gave her a ring. [He says he "accepted her offer."] Well, marriage turned out beautifully. The woman was a prize. "Sweet, pure, and not looking," says John. Good cook, good housekeeper. Fine girl. Just fine. After having a husband for a year and a half years of marriage and six children, John now having no more decided that John never having proposed to her, ought to have done so; therefore in order to prove his love, the least he could do was give her a divorce and then ask her.

TWO COPS CHASE SPEEDING AUTO, BUT STORK WINS

Officers John Froehlich and John Robertson, Lake Forest motorcycle policemen, were cruising about the streets of that village in their cycle car late last night, eyes and ears alert for all that was not as it should be. Suddenly a touring car swept by them at high speed and the officers gave chase. The fleeing car increased its speed to 55 miles an hour and the policemen when it suddenly stopped on the Waukegan road near Mrs. J. O'Brien's Melody Farm. They drove up to the car, prepared to deal out several tickets and a lecture on speeding. In the car they found Joe Madden of 7410 North Oakley avenue, with his wife in a rear seat. Mrs. Madden had just given birth to a baby daughter, her sixth child. That, said Joe, accounted for his untidy state, and also for his sudden about turns and sped the three, Waukegan. Joe returned to the Lake Forest police station a few hours later and, true to the paternal tradition, passed out cigars.

EASTERN TEAM WINS FOLLOWING ON WEST COAST

Harpster's Play Provides Big Thrill.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The eastern team of football stars left here today and took up training quarters on the Stanford university campus, to remain there until Dec. 23, when they will meet their western rivals in the annual East-West charity game.

Before critics had a chance to look over the eastern squad the west had been installed a heavy favorite to turn back the visitors, as has been the case for the last three years. Three short workouts here, however, have changed the complexion of things, and at the present time the two teams are ranked on an even basis.

Harpster Thrills Fans.

The brilliant work of Howard Harpster, Carnegie Tech quarterback, has been particularly impressive. Running the eleven which Head Coach Andy Kerr is watching over, Harpster's kicking and passing ability, along with his generalship, has caused much comment. In the workout at Stanford today Kerr used the same back field combination—Weston, Boston college, and Guest, Lafayette, half backs, and Howell, Nebraska, full back.

With signals and a few simple formations under way, Kerr plans next to turn his attention to scrimmage. A couple of pickup eleven from Stanford will be used against the easterners.

The western squad, assembled for the first time yesterday, got down to serious work today. Coach Orie E. Hollingbery of Washington State college drilled two squads steadily in the fundamental plays around which the west's offensive will be built. Because of the short time to practice, neither side will use many formations.

Biff Hoffman to Play.

Hollingbery experimented with several back field combinations, but has given no indication as to who will get the call. It is almost a certainty that Biff Hoffman, this year's full back and captain at Stanford, will start, while Spelcher, quarter back, and Speck, half back, are another outstanding candidate for one of the ball totting positions. The Texas boys, Petty, end, Texas A. & M., and Walker, quarter back, Texas Tech, and Cowan, quarter back, are stalwarts who have earned recognition and are sure to get into the fray early.

TECH AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The white haired mother of Coach William Alexander of Georgia Tech journeyed west tonight with the Golden Tornado football squad in the hope of seeing her son's team trounce California in the annual Tournament of Roses game New Year's day.

Arriving here today from Atlanta, the Tech squad, 31 strong, left here three hours later for California. They spent their time here in sight-seeing. "I wouldn't miss this chance for anything," said Mrs. Alexander. "I think we have a wonderful team. I don't know much about the California Bears, of course I cannot say how we will fare against them. But I think we will win."

Mrs. Alexander has never missed a football game in Atlanta but this is her first trip to a distant gridiron. Alexander said his squad was in fine shape and eager to battle the Bears. All the men who were on the sick list have recovered.

A large number of Georgia Tech alumni greeted the team and gave it a rousing send-off.

Becker Tells How to Keep Balsam Fresh

BY BOB BECKER.

Symmetrical young spruce and balsam trees become a welcome addition to hundreds of thousands of homes this week because Santa Claus needs these young trees as part of his celebration of the Christmas season.

It is possible to keep your Christmas tree fresh and fragrant if you will "feed" it while it is in the home. The method is simple, and following it means the difference between a tree which sheds needles all over the floor and one which holds its needles and retains its good looks.

These small trees require water to keep them fresh. As soon as your tree arrives, shave the bark for about two inches above the base of the tree and then stand it in a basin of water. The next step is to set up the tree in the house so that its base will rest in a basin of water to which a little sugar has been added.

The balsam or spruce will absorb the sugar water and the cells of the tree will be nourished by this solution. By making a wooden tree holder four or five inches high with a hole in the center and then placing a pan of sugar water under the holder so that the base of the tree will rest in the sugar water solution your balsam or spruce will be provided with both water and some nourishment. If this method is followed, the bark, branches, and needles will not dry out.

Roettger's Leg Injury Mends; Ready to Play

Walter Roettger, brilliant outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals during the first half of last season, who broke his right leg in a game with the Cubs in July 4, has mended completely and is ready for the call to Avon Park, Fla., the Red Birds' training camp. The state of Walter's health is of more than passing interest throughout Illinois, partly because he is the basketball coach at Illinois Wesleyan, where his charges have won the Illinois conference championship for three years and have won 72 out of 81 games during his regime.

Roettger was a basketball and baseball star at Illinois, after which he did a stretch at the Cardinal farms in Syracuse and Houston.

He was pounding the ball at better than a .350 clip and was hailed as the third best thrower in the major leagues when he was laid low in a slide into third in the first game of a holiday double header.

Those who saw him lifted from the ground after the accident, with his coat twisted around to where his head should have been, voiced the opinion he would never make the big show again. But now Roettger prances about the Wesleyan floor quite merrily, and there is not a suggestion of a limp when he walks.

Aurora, Ill., Dec. 21.—(AP)—William Staler of Toledo, secretary of the Grand Circuit association, and two other men well known about the race tracks were injured last night when the automobile in which they were riding from Chicago to St. Charles, Ill., crashed into the side of a Northwestern railroad train east of St. Charles. They were taken to a hotel in St. Charles where doctors said their hurts were not serious. The others injured were S. Pallen of Indianapolis, horse trainer for Edward J. Baker, and Bob Nell of Memphis, nephew of the late Pop Goers.

In the Randolph matches last night at the Bessinger Congress street alley the Duffy Florals continued a dizzy pace by taking three games from the Mickelberry quintet. They are leading the league. The Oh Henrys dropped three to the Commodore Barry team, while the Fox Lake Vista team won two from the Patterson Pies.

Brickley was convicted of larceny in connection with stock transactions. He was brought here several months ago because of poor health.

Joe Sewell Hardest Batter to Fan in American League

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Baseball, the major league variety, is never without at least a couple of fellows who are known for their ability to dodge the humiliation of a strikeout. Outside of personal satisfaction, it doesn't get 'em much. An infield is not worse for the attack than three strikes. It merely looks better to the cash customer in attendance.

One gentleman who compiled a formidable record as an astute dodger of third strikes is Joe Sewell, the Indians' shortstop, who hustled into the majors in 1920 to fill the shoes of Ray Chapman, who died after being hit by a pitched ball.

Last season Sewell eluded all except nine strikeouts, which was the best percentage of the circuit. Sewell's grand average is a bit more impressive. In four seasons he has succumbed on swings only 26 times. His best year was four in 1925 games. The squatty southerner appears to be a bit more tricky in this particular than were Collins, Cobb, and Speaker, who usually managed to get at a piece of the ball tossed at them.

So far nothing has been learned of the White Sox' intentions in regard to a coach, or rather two coaches. Ed Walsh, who filed one of the jobs last season, is to be turned into the jungles in search of talent and Blackburn has graduated into a manager. Blackburn wants one fellow with pep and one who has some knowledge of developing young pitchers. When such veterans are located they will be taken on. Roger Bresnahan, who is the result of McGraw's signing him to make room for the could fill one of the jobs, but the Sox have approached him in the known.

Joe McCarthy, the Cub field coach, is back at his Buffalo home after his mother in Philadelphia. He intends to stay where he is until the first of the year, when he will decide on a good date for his return to California. He plans to spend a month on the coast before heading rather at Catalina Island, Feb. 15.

John McGraw's failure to make much while dealing this winter has been a matter of disappointment to those who were anxious to see whether he could improve on his last season. This one he gave Burlington, N.C., the Pirates for Vic Aldridge, who won 25 and lost 14 for the Pirates, and lost 1 for the Giants. On this, McGraw released Aldridge from the minor league club the last couple of months of the season and had to a big part of his $12,000 contract. # BUSINESS CHIEFS SEE PROSPERITY BOOST IN 1929

Tell of Factors That Point the Way.

BY O. A. MATHER.

With the prospect that the final reports will show this year more prosperous than 1927, Chicago leaders in business, industry and finance expect 1929 will prove as good or better than this year. This is the consensus of a pre-holiday symposium conducted by the Chicago Association of Commerce.

But while the burden of the predictions is that business will be good for an indefinite future period, it is emphasized that conservatism and reasonable caution should be observed.

Sargent Gives Reasons.
"In my opinion we will see an era of unprecedented prosperity during the next year, particularly in the middle west and northwest," Fred W. Sargent, president of the Chicago and North Western railroad, said. "The national program for internal improvements, together with state and municipal programs, the general high level of wages and the constantly improving condition of agriculture all point that way."

"The oil industry, more or less supported by the national and various state governments, has been able to produce a condition of orderly production," Henry M. Davies, president of the Pure Oil company, says. "This will result in decreasing the waste amount of oil produced, but in regulating it in such a way that current production should bear a reasonable relationship to current needs."

"Business will continue to be endowed with substantially greater momentum than was evident at the close of 1927," C. Howard Marfield, president of the American Bank of Commerce, says. "Information coming from our customers from all parts of the country substantiates prevailing reports that business is well above the level of this time last year and promises to continue active. The high degree of activity in the automobile, steel and building industries has resulted in unprecedented prosperity for industries of dependent lines."

Conditions Give Promise.
"Propitious conditions give promise of an active business year during 1929," A. W. Straus, vice president of S. W. Straus & Co., says. "The significant factors substantiate the prediction of a forward movement in the building industry. Serious labor troubles have been practically eliminated. The construction boom is stabilized and seasonal fluctuations to a large extent is being eliminated by more careful planning and improved construction methods."

Other interviews in an optimistic vein were given by L. A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central; E. F. Atwood, president of the Chicago and North Western; J. H. McLaughlin, president of the Elgin National Watch company; W. B. Storey, president of the Chicago Telephone company; and other executives in varied lines of business.

Christmas gifts in the shape of subscription privileges in various companies were announced by several corporations yesterday. The Cudahy Packing company will offer stockholders of common stock an additional 42,429 common shares at $50 a share, or par value, in the ratio of one new share for each ten shares held. Payment will be made by Feb. 9. The current market price is around $22.

The Illinois Bell Telephone company gave rights to purchase one additional share for each ten shares held. Payment will be made by Feb. 21. About 99 per cent of the common stock is held by the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Receive Warrants.
Stockholders of the Jewel Tea company received warrants entitling them to subscribe to additional common stock at $100 a share in the ratio of one new share for each three shares held. The rights were quoted at $100 a share. The privilege expires on Jan. 13.

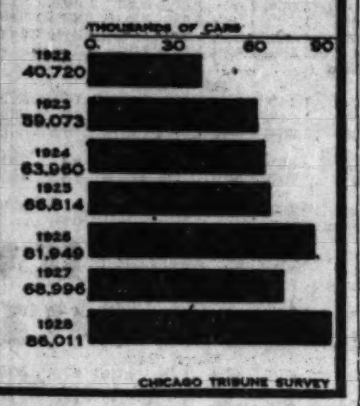

The Algonquin, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad received permission from the Interstate Commerce commission to issue $10,000,000 of 20 year 4 1/2 per cent convertible debentures, which will be sold to stockholders on terms recently announced.

CHANGE NAMES OF TWO CHICAGO STEEL COMPANIES
Changes in the organization of two Chicago steel companies were announced yesterday. The Consolidated Steel Strapping company has been reorganized as the Illinois Steel Strapping company, with a capitalization of 250,000 no par common shares and 100,000 shares of $100 preferred stock with a cumulative dividend rate of $2.50 a year. Of this $100,000 shares of the preferred stock will be publicly offered.

The Scott Steel company has changed its name to the Scott-Weiss steel company and elected William G. James as vice president and treasurer.

STANDARD OIL WARNS AGAINST OVERPRODUCTION

Advocates Practice of 1929 Conservation.

Chicago Tribune Press Service.
New York, Dec. 21.—A warning against threatened overproduction of oil in 1929 is given in the most recent issue of the magazine, The Lamp, official organ of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

Despite voluntary conservation of oil in certain fields during 1928, The Lamp estimates that the industry produced during the year 26,000,000 barrels of oil to the already alarming surplus of 540,000,000 barrels reported at the close of 1927.

"Business will continue to be endowed with substantially greater momentum than was evident at the close of 1927," C. Howard Marfield, president of the American Bank of Commerce, says. "Information coming from our customers from all parts of the country substantiates prevailing reports that business is well above the level of this time last year and promises to continue active. The high degree of activity in the automobile, steel and building industries has resulted in unprecedented prosperity for industries of dependent lines."

Supply May Increase.
"Supposing that conservation is not more generally practiced, there may be a total supply of crude and casing head gasoline next year 80,000,000 barrels in excess of the supply for 1928," says The Lamp. "Besides this, there must be taken into account increases in refining capacity, and the Venezuela of 1,000 barrels a day."

Considering the total consumption of crude and products for last year and allowing for an increase of 4 per cent in the coming year, it appears that the industry may have to store about 60,000,000 barrels of crude and casing head gasoline next year. "It is evident that we shall see an increase in gasoline production, both from straight run and cracking operations, and that the excess for 1929 will be in the neighborhood of 138,000,000 barrels per annum, and a large increase is in sight from this source. Because of low fuel oil prices, the industry is being driven to produce gasoline through cracking than from straight distillation of crude."

Would Flood Market.
"If the 50,000,000 barrels of additional raw material in next year are run the gasoline market will be flooded and the industry will have some 60,000,000 barrels of crude oil in storage, and the excess for 1929 will be in the neighborhood of 138,000,000 barrels per annum, and a large increase is in sight from this source. Because of low fuel oil prices, the industry is being driven to produce gasoline through cracking than from straight distillation of crude."

BANKS HERE VOTE DIVIDENDS TO STOCKHOLDERS
Several Chicago banks announced stock subscription privileges or extra dividends yesterday. Stockholders of the Commercial Trust and Savings bank increased the capital stock from $400,000 to $500,000. Stockholders may buy one new share for each ten shares held. Payment to be made by Dec. 28.

The directors of the Cosmopolitan state bank decided to increase the capital stock from $750,000 to $1,000,000 and offer the 2,500 additional shares to stockholders at $100 a share. The proposal will be voted on at the annual stockholders' meeting next month.

The Schiff Trust and Savings bank declared an extra dividend of 4 per cent. The Reliance Bank and Trust company transferred $100,000 from undivided profits to surplus.

Predict Good Earnings for Canadian National Ry.
New York, Dec. 21.—Net earnings after taxes of the Canadian National railway will be more than $80,000,000 for 1928, according to Sir Henry McMichael, president and chairman. In 1922 net earnings amounted to only $3,000,000, said Sir Henry. "Taking money to be worth 5 per cent, the value of the Canadian National system has risen $60,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 in six years. Many factors have contributed to this. During those years Canada went through a period of developing property, culminating in the record crop of the last season. More than 500,000,000 bushels of wheat were harvested from the Canadian prairies in 1928."

Report Progress in Working Out New Exchange Rules
Progress in the preparation of trading rules which will govern the trading in stocks by the Chicago Board of Trade is reported by members of the committee who are conferring in New York with the attorney of the stock exchange there.

The Waldorf section was begun in 1890 and the Astoria seven years later, which is to say that the older part has been in service for about 37 years and the newer for 30. Both were built with an eye to at least 50 years of usefulness.

Furnished Solidly, Too.
The Waldorf-Astoria was furnished in the same spirit. It was heavily done with solid materials. It is a good many years, now, since the change in New York neighborhoods left a good deal of doubt about the value of the Waldorf site for a hotel; and certainly, the change in hotel styles had long since stamped the building with obsolescence.

But while the burden of the predictions is that business will be good for an indefinite future period, it is emphasized that conservatism and reasonable caution should be observed.

"Business will continue to be endowed with substantially greater momentum than was evident at the close of 1927," C. Howard Marfield, president of the American Bank of Commerce, says. "Information coming from our customers from all parts of the country substantiates prevailing reports that business is well above the level of this time last year and promises to continue active. The high degree of activity in the automobile, steel and building industries has resulted in unprecedented prosperity for industries of dependent lines."

Conditions Give Promise.
"Propitious conditions give promise of an active business year during 1929," A. W. Straus, vice president of S. W. Straus & Co., says. "The significant factors substantiate the prediction of a forward movement in the building industry. Serious labor troubles have been practically eliminated. The construction boom is stabilized and seasonal fluctuations to a large extent is being eliminated by more careful planning and improved construction methods."

Other interviews in an optimistic vein were given by L. A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central; E. F. Atwood, president of the Chicago and North Western; J. H. McLaughlin, president of the Elgin National Watch company; W. B. Storey, president of the Chicago Telephone company; and other executives in varied lines of business.

Christmas gifts in the shape of subscription privileges in various companies were announced by several corporations yesterday. The Cudahy Packing company will offer stockholders of common stock an additional 42,429 common shares at $50 a share, or par value, in the ratio of one new share for each ten shares held. Payment will be made by Feb. 9. The current market price is around $22.

The Illinois Bell Telephone company gave rights to purchase one additional share for each ten shares held. Payment will be made by Feb. 21. About 99 per cent of the common stock is held by the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Receive Warrants.
Stockholders of the Jewel Tea company received warrants entitling them to subscribe to additional common stock at $100 a share in the ratio of one new share for each three shares held. The rights were quoted at $100 a share. The privilege expires on Jan. 13.

The Algonquin, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad received permission from the Interstate Commerce commission to issue $10,000,000 of 20 year 4 1/2 per cent convertible debentures, which will be sold to stockholders on terms recently announced.

CHANGE NAMES OF TWO CHICAGO STEEL COMPANIES
Changes in the organization of two Chicago steel companies were announced yesterday. The Consolidated Steel Strapping company has been reorganized as the Illinois Steel Strapping company, with a capitalization of 250,000 no par common shares and 100,000 shares of $100 preferred stock with a cumulative dividend rate of $2.50 a year. Of this $100,000 shares of the preferred stock will be publicly offered.

The Scott Steel company has changed its name to the Scott-Weiss steel company and elected William G. James as vice president and treasurer.

James Simpson Renamed for Reserve Bank Position
James Simpson, president of Marshall Field & Co., was reappointed chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago yesterday at a meeting of the federal reserve board in Washington. William A. Heath was named to succeed himself as chairman of the board of directors and as federal reserve agent. James I. Mackay, Detroit, was named a director of the Detroit branch of the bank for a term of three years and Frank C. Hall, Muncie, Ind., was reappointed "C" director for three years.

Report Progress in Working Out New Exchange Rules
Progress in the preparation of trading rules which will govern the trading in stocks by the Chicago Board of Trade is reported by members of the committee who are conferring in New York with the attorney of the stock exchange there.

BRANCH BANKS COME TO WALL ST. UNIT

BY GEORGE HAMMOND.

(Chicago stock list on page 30.)
Grigsby-Grunow Radio led prices on the Chicago Stock exchange to higher ground yesterday in one of the most sensational movements in years. The tightening of call money from 8 to 10 per cent did not cause even a ripple in the trend of the market. The radio issue shot up 27 points to a high of 144 in leaps of as great as 10 points between sales. This was accompanied by a surge of the most common stock, with many new lines during 1929 which will add substantially to the sales volume and earnings.

Newcomer on Exchange.
Iron Fireman Manufacturing, maker of small size automatic coal stokers, and a newcomer on the exchange, opened at 23 and sold as high as 23 1/2 in initial trading totaling 3,800 shares. The company was incorporated in 1928 as the successor to a partnership. It has its plants at Portland, Ore., and Chicago in St. Louis and Cleveland. The company started with an initial investment of $100,000 and has since expanded to its present size entirely out of earnings which were plowed back into the working capital. Earnings for 1928, with the last 4 months estimated, are given at $500,000, or $2.50 a share on the 100,000 shares of common stock, compared with $375,638, or $1.87 a share, in 1927.

Will Issue Report.
The rise was simultaneous with a meeting of the directors of the company, which was to issue its annual report and a two part report of the company's earnings for the first half of its fiscal year, ended Nov. 30, 1928. There was a report showing a net profit of $100,000, or $1 a share, for the period of around $9 a share. The company previously reported a net of $5 a share for the first four months of the year.

Other radio stocks acted in sympathy with the general movement and a series of from 1 to 3 1/2 points were established by U. S. Radio, Utah Radio, Sonatone Tube, Ceco, Atlas Stores, and Zenith Radio. Auburn Automobile closed 3 1/2, selling at $100,000 in cash and 2 per cent in stock.

Feature of Industrials.
Glenside Combine Harvester gained 9 1/2 points and was the individual feature of the industrial list. The company manufactures combination machines which cut and thresh grain in one operation, thereby effecting a big saving in harvesting. It was organized in 1926 to take over a company with similar lines, and since then has been steadily increasing its production of large modern manufacturing plants of steel and concrete construction at its Independence, Mo.

Has Authorized Issue.
The company has an authorized issue of 100,000 shares of no par common stock, of which $6,000,000 has been issued and outstanding. The stock is held by the company and its subsidiaries.

Bank Opens War on Nebraska's Guaranty Law
Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 21.—A restraining order to prevent the Mullen and Clarence G. Bliss, secretary of the state department of trade and commerce, from collecting a special assessment of 10 cents on the dollar of the average deposits for 1928 of the State bank of Abie, Neb., and 55 state banks similarly situated, was granted yesterday by District Judge W. E. Stewart. The temporary restraining order is to be heard in the Equity court of this county Jan. 7. The suit is regarded by many as a test of the soundness of the Nebraska bank guaranty law. The petition filed by the Abie bank alleges that the advance of the State bank of $267 bid, the $100 par value stock of the State bank was quoted at $90 bid and the $100 par value of the Interstate Trust at $445 bid.

REPORT PROGRESS IN RADIO CORP., VICTOR COMBINE
Camden, N. J., Dec. 21.—The merger of the Victor Talking Machine company and the Victor Records company was discussed by the directors of the former at a meeting here today. E. E. Shumaker, president of the company, is at his home at Merchantville tonight.

PRICE CHANGES IN BOND MARKET ARE NOT IMPORTANT
New York, Dec. 21.—The bond market was unusually quiet today and price changes for the most part were unimportant. As a rule the trend was toward lower levels. A few convertibles were active and some of them moved forward for sizable gains. Foreign issues displayed continued firmness in the main.

Pacific Ry. Gets Right to Build 8 Mile Extension
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—The Central Pacific railroad obtained permission today from the Interstate Commerce commission to build an 8 1/2 mile extension in California.

Nov. World Zinc Output Shows Slight Increase
New York, Dec. 21.—An increase in world output of zinc was reported today. The output for the month of November was 119,445 tons in November, 1927.

NATIONAL LIFE CO. ACQUIRES STOCK IN AMERICAN CONCERN
Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 21.—The Nashville Banner says today that approximately one-fourth of the outstanding stock, 6,550 shares of National Life and Accident Insurance company, has been sold to the American National company, both of Nashville. The consideration was said to be in excess of five million dollars. The National company has a capital stock of $2,500,000, according to its latest published statement, and a surplus of $1,500,000. The American National company has already placed a stock of $1,500,000 in the sale. The Banner states no change of management or policy of the company is contemplated.

Order Three Boilers as Tall as Skyscrapers
New York, Dec. 21.—Matthew H. Sloan, president of the New York Edison company, announced today the closing of a contract with International Combustion Engineering company for three boilers that will be the largest ever built. Each boiler will be an average eight story building. They are to be installed in the East river generating station of the New York Edison company and will supply steam to drive the largest single shaft, single unit electric generating machine in the world, a 150,000 horsepower turbine engine now being built by the General Electric company.
